House Unit Votes Extra Funds for Health, Schools

WASHINGTON (AP)—A rebellious House Appropriations Committee voted today about half a billion dollars more than President Johnson requested for health and education programs. It added that amount to the annual appropriation bill for the Labor Department and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare in an action Chairman George H. Mahon, D-Tex., called "an invitation for a tax increase." The 50-member committee added $212.8 million more to the bill than an 11-man subcommittee had recommended. The extra money included $232.8 million for payment to school districts affected by federal installations. Partly offsetting this, the committee knocked out $20 million the subcommittee had approved for the controversial teacher corps.

All the voting behind closed doors reportedly was by margins of around 2 to 1 on the changes.

President Johnson, some members told newsmen, personally pleaded with members not to provide more money than he had proposed.

The $10,555,342,500 bill is $489,213,000 more than the $10,066,129,500 the President had requested.

In a formal report accompanying the money bill, which the House will consider next week, the committee criticized the administration for failing "to make proper allowance for the needs of" existing health program. The House is expected to go along, as usual, with the committee's recommendations.

It is the second time in a week that the powerful committee refused to follow the President's fiscal leadership. Last week it added $28 million in unsought money to the annual Agriculture Department bill that the House approved unchanged Tuesday.

The four Republican members of a subcommittee that drafted the bill filed a minority report urging that it be delayed until the administration gives Congress "a realistic assessment" of how much more money will be needed for defense.

The four are Reps. Frank T. Bow of Ohio, Melvin R. Laird of Wisconsin, Robert H. Michel of Illinois and Garner E. Shriver of Kansas.

Area Students Win Merit Scholarships

Two area students have been chosen out of 14,000 applications to receive National Merit Scholarships.

Stephen R. Patterson, Bellevue, and Jeffrey W. Hanes, 1426 Burton Ave., Burley, were announced today as scholarship recipients.

Patterson, a student at Wood River High School, plans to use his funds to attend the University of Oregon, and Hanes, a student at Burley High School, will attend Rice University.

Merit scholarships provide from $400 to $8,000 each, depending on the student's need. They cover the four undergraduate years of college and provide a type of educational insurance, since the amount can be adjusted if the student's financial circumstances should change.

Red China May Have Bomb Test

TOKYO (AP)—Japanese government sources said today that Red China's third nuclear explosion, expected early next month, may be a preliminary hydrogen bomb test.

They said the year's interval since Peking's last atomic effort to boost their international position would have given Chinese scientists enough time to put them on the verge of thermonuclear capability. They said the blast may come in two weeks, if weather permits, as part of a Chinese Communist prestige during May Day celebrations in the Communist world.

Demos Decide to Boost Antipoverty Plans

WASHINGTON (AP)—House Democrats writing new antipoverty legislation have decided to boost President Johnson's money request by $245 million and put more emphasis on job training programs.

After weeks of private meetings, Democrats on the Education and Labor Committee agreed Wednesday night on a bill that would give Congress a lot more authority over how antipoverty funds are spent.

The bill would boost the fund authorization for the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) to $1.99 billion. Johnson had asked for $1.75 billion. The current authorization is $1.5 billion. More significant for the future

Won't Resign

WASHINGTON (AP)—John Carver, undersecretary of the Interior, said Wednesday night he does not plan to resign.

Carver, a former Boise resident, has been rumored as a potential candidate for Idaho governor in recent days.

Governors Ask Extension Of Coastlines

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The commercial threat of Russian fishing boats off Pacific Coast states prompted western governors today to consider asking the federal government to extend the nation's boundaries to 12 miles from shore.

Approved by a preliminary committee yesterday, the resolution went before the final session of the four-day meeting of governors of 12 western states and two territories.

The resolutions committee headed by Republican Gov. Mark Hatfield of Oregon rejected the bid of Washington Gov. Daniel J. Evans, another Republican, for a western states compact to promote peaceful uses of atomic energy.

If ever approved by the federal government, the proposed extension of United States boundaries to protect American fishing would mean a major change in relations with other commercial fishing nations.

Hatfield noted that Chile's boundaries now extend 200 miles offshore for fishermen and several nations have adopted the 12-mile limit.

Another proposed resolution requested that the states have a voice in forming new automobile safety standards.

The governors also had before them resolutions seeking financial aid to the gold and silver mining industries; asking for improved access roads in the national forests; affirming the state's right to regulate most fish and wildlife; and demanding that the states retain a share in implementing new federal mining safety regulations.

Gov. Tim Babcock of Montana, a Republican, was expected to be named the new chairman of the western governors, replacing Democratic Gov. Grant Sawyer of Nevada.

More Trouble Feared in Dominican

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—U.S. diplomats fear that the accidental killing of a shoeshine boy by a U.S. Army guard will touch off more anti-American incidents during the celebration this week of the Dominican revolution last April.

A military spokesman said the boy was killed Wednesday while shining the boots of a soldier who was guarding the American ambassador's residence. The guard dropped his rifle, it went off and a bullet struck the boy in the neck, the spokesman said.

Gen. Robert R. Linville, commander of U.S. forces in the Dominican Republic, ordered a full investigation.

COLLEGE OF SOUTHERN IDAHO. Jeanie Hays, Jerome, is one of many individuals who will be wearing the "I'm Voting YES for Our College" pins from now until May 10 when the college bond issue will be voted upon. A coordinating citizens' committee purchased 5,000 of these pins to be distributed in Jerome and Twin Falls counties. (Times-News photo)

Seven Persons Drown In Dallas Flood

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Seven persons were known drowned and two more presumably perished today when deluges struck Dallas and a northern suburb, Garland. Hundreds were driven from their homes by rising water. The body of a woman was found after her automobile was swept away by water in Garland. Riding with her was her husband and their child and they have not been found. One of the victims, drowned in his late-model Cadillac, was W. L. Perryman, president of General American Oil Co., an independent oil firm operating in six states and Canada. Firemen axed through an auto's back window to free a woman from the car which had been swept into a swollen creek, but the man with her was trapped and drowned. Robert Buck and his wife, Adrienne, of San Antonio, who moved to Texas recently from East Point, Ga., both drowned when their car was swept from the road into a creek.

Water got into the Ford Motor Co. assembly plant in northeast Dallas, forcing it to close until Friday, idling 1,500 workers.

The new round of turbulent weather came as rivers and lesser streams throughout the eastern half of Texas poured floodwaters toward the sea. Rains up to 21 inches had flooded wide areas, particularly to the east of Dallas.

Firemen working from boats plucked people from trees and rooftops. An appeal went out for owners of private boats to make them available to the rescue effort.

Six of the missing were Dallas firemen, unreported since they went on two separate rescue missions. Two of these reportedly were swept away in a car by rushing waters.

The city's main northbound arteries were clogged with water, including Central Expressway, in which water was 5 feet deep in underpasses.

Police in suburban Garland said between 150 and 200 persons have been evacuated from an area surrounding Duck Creek, which runs almost into the center of the town.

Expansion of the Neighborhood Youth Corps is also called for, up from $300 million requested by the OEO for 354,000 youths to $563 million, enough to enroll 500,000 young men and women in the program that provides jobs in public and nonprofit agencies. The age of those eligible for the program would be increased from 22 to 25.

A program to provide similar work for the older, hard-core unemployed would increase from $10 million requested by the OEO to $100 million.

The bill also would make a major administrative change, taking the work experience program for older heads of families away from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare and fitting it into the manpower training programs of the Department of Labor with a budget of $135 million.

It would write into the law something Congress has tried to get the OEO to do for the past two years—bring more women into the Job Corps. The bill says 10,000 of the 45,000 in the Job Corps shall be women.

GM attorneys argued the auto giant had to have a dependable dealer organization and said discount houses are not needed to create price competition.

Justice Abe Fortas delivered the unanimous decision.

Fortas said the high tribunal found in today's case "a classic conspiracy in the restraint of trade."

His opinion said there was "joint, collaborative action by dealers, the defendant associations and General Motors to eliminate a class of competitors by terminating business dealings between them and the minority of Chevrolet dealers and to deprive franchise dealers of their freedom to deal through discounters if they so choose."

Peruvian Airliner Crashes Killing 49; Boise Man Aboard

LIMA, Peru (AP)—A search party today found the wreckage of a Peruvian airliner that crashed in the Andes killing all 49 persons aboard. Five were Americans. Lineas Aereas Nacionales said search planes located the smashed four-engine Constellation near Huampara, about 60 miles southeast of Lima. The plane vanished Wednesday. The Lima airport said the plane radioed a distress call 10 minutes after taking off, and police at Cuzco said they had a report it crashed at Coclococha, 170 miles south of Lima.

The airline said the plane carried 43 passengers and a crew of 6.

The Americans were the pilot, William Jones of Miami, Fla. Three Peace Corps volunteers—Gerald Francis Flynn, 26, of Seattle, Wash., Paul L. Bond, 24, of Jonesboro, Ark., and Troy M. Ross, 25, of Boise, Idaho—and George A. Hoffman, 42, a geologist.

Flynn and Bond were based in Ecuador and Ross in Cuzco.

Panel to Be Feature Of Employment Meet

Highlight of the state convention of Idaho employment agency workers, a panel discussion on Friday afternoon, will be open to the public, John J. Leinen, general convention chairman, announced Thursday. Subject of the panel is "The Challenge of the Great Society on the World of Work." The event is scheduled for 3 p.m. Friday at the Elks temple here. Speakers will be Mrs. Elsie Opheim, chairman, business department, College of Southern Idaho, who will talk from the economic point of view.

Dr. Donald F. Kline, director of development and research, Idaho State University, will voice the educational side of the world of work. Dr. E. Wayne Wright, associate professor of psychology, Utah State University, Logan, will discuss the psychological viewpoint.

Moderator for the panel will be William McHugh, counselor, Twin Falls local office, Department of Employment.

Some 150 delegates and guests are expected in Twin Falls for the two-day affair. Official title of the employment workers organization is International Association of Personnel in Employment Security (IAPES). The Idaho chapter claims over 200 members and is a part of the international association which has some 25,500 paid-up members.

The convention will be called to order at 1 p.m. Friday at the Elks Temple by Art Zillig, president of the Idaho chapter. Registration will be held at the Rogerson Motor Inn lobby beginning at 10 a.m. Friday.

H. L. Derrick, Twin Falls city manager, will give the welcome address. A keynote address by Otto Johnson, deputy commissioner, Employment Security Department, state of Washington, will be heard prior to the panel discussion.

Other convention activities will include a talk by Richard Barnes, counselor, Mountain Home Job Corps Center, at 9 a.m. Saturday. Luncheon speakers Saturday will be Ed Logsdon, IAPES, and Roy G. Slotten, Twin Falls, department of Employment. The election of state chapter officers is scheduled for Saturday afternoon and installations at a Saturday night banquet at the Elks Temple.

Death Claims Mrs. Guttery At Age of 77

Mrs. Marie Etta Guttery, 77, 160 Fillmore St., died at 1:30 a.m. Thursday in the Twin Falls Clinic Hospital.

She was born Aug. 19, 1888, at Clarksville, Ohio, and was married to Edward Thomas Guttery Sr. on Sept. 25, 1908, at Cincinnati, Ohio. They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in September, 1958.

They moved to Hagerman after they were married and then to Jerome and then to Hailey in 1917. In 1919 they moved to Twin Falls. She was a member of the Twin Falls Methodist Church, Ladies Circle of the church, Primrose Rebekah Lodge No. 76 and was a past president of the same. She received the degree of chivalry at Coeur d'Alene in 1956 from the Grand Rebekah Lodge of Idaho.

She also was past president of the Past Noble Grand, staff captain for many years and has received the veterans jewel, meritorious service pin of Rebekah Lodge and Triple Link pin.

Surviving, besides her husband, are two sons: Edward Thomas Guttery Jr., Fremont, Calif., and Lewis Charles Guttery, Boise; two daughters, Mrs. LaVonne Marie Christopherson and Mrs. LaDorah C. Greenleaf, both of Twin Falls; two sisters, Mrs. Clara Bordenfelter, Mason, Ohio, and Mrs. Ethel Ebberts, Hagerman; and nine grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. Funeral services are pending.

Bleazard Will Direct Lions At Gooding

GOODING—Delbert Bleazard is the new president of the Gooding Lions Club, it was reported Thursday.

Other officers elected were Frank Stone, first vice president; J. E. Thompson, second vice president; Harold Reed, secretary; Eugene Gibbons, treasurer; Rev. Harold Hake, Lion Tamer; George Silva, tail twister; and Dick Reynolds and Finley Hendrix, directors.

Reynolds showed a film on Viet Nam. Gibbons gave a report on the community calendar sales, which are being handled this year by the junior high and high school band members and 4-H members.

Band members will use their proceeds for the purchase of uniforms and 4-H members plan to donate their proceeds toward the 4-H camp.

Merchants Air Credit Problems

FAIRFIELD—Members of the Fairfield Merchants Association discussed credit problems at the regular meeting Tuesday evening in the courtroom.

General consensus was that the credit problem is becoming more serious each year. The group voted to have a directional sign made and installed to tell tourists of the picnic tables and rest rooms at the city park next to the fire house on the main street.

There were some suggestions of holding a winter carnival when the snow is deep next winter.

Orval Hansen to Run for Senator

IDAHO FALLS (AP)—Rep. Orval Hansen of Idaho Falls announced today he is a Republican candidate for state senator from Legislative District 30 in Bonneville County.

Hansen has served four terms as a state representative. He was House majority leader in the 1961 legislature.

Weather, Temperatures

MAGIC VALLEY—Fair today, tonight and Friday, but with some cloudiness at times. A little warmer. Winds increasing at times Friday to 15-25 miles an hour. Highs in upper 50s to mid 60s, lows in upper 20s to low 30s, with areas of frost, except Camas Prairie, Hailey and vicinity highs 50-55, lows in upper teens and low 20s. Outlook Saturday, fair and warmer. Temperatures at 8 a.m.: 34 at Jerome, 40 at Kimberly with 56 per cent humidity, 33 at T.F. with 34 per cent humidity, 35 at Rupert, 25 at Fairfield, 34 at Hailey, 32 at Buhl, 32 at Castleford, 37 at Wendell, 36 at Gooding at noon, 55 at T. weather bureau with 27 per cent humidity. Barometer: 29.99. Soil temperatures: At T.F., four-inch 50, eight-inch 48, 20-inch 47, 36-inch 48; at Rupert, four-inch 54; three-inch level: At Buhl, 53; at Castleford, 53; at Wendell, 51.

SYNOPSIS AND AGRICULTURAL SUMMARY
Upper winds have backed from northwest to west bringing somewhat warmer air into southern Idaho today. This shift in the upper flow will be brief and will become northwesterly again on Friday. Some cooling of the upper air with rising pressures will be accompanied by some increase in cloudiness and a general increase in westerly winds, probably 15 to 25 miles per hour, over the district on Friday. A few showers are likely in eastern sections, but available moisture appears to be too limited to cause showers over most of the agricultural areas of southcentral Idaho.

All parts of the district will be warmer this afternoon and most sections should have slightly higher temperatures tonight. Early morning lows will still be below freezing in most areas and protective measures for tender plants should be continued. Tomorrow temperatures Friday should be about the same as today.

At this time fair and somewhat warmer weather is indicated for Saturday.

Highest temperature Wednesday, lowest temperature last 12 hours, precipitation for 24 hours ending at 6 a.m. CST.

Legislative Council Unit To Meet Here

Members of the Business Climate Committee of the Legislative Council will be in Twin Falls at 10 a.m. Wednesday, according to Ray Rostron, secretary-manager of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce.

The committee, appointed during the 1965 Legislature, will meet with local businessmen in the Colonial Room of the Rogerston Hotel.

Rostron pointed out that because of the lack of time and space, all individuals who have specific ideas on new business laws or amendments should call the chamber office and set up an appointment for meeting with the committee.

The Business Climate Committee will present, during the next session of the legislature, a report on any new laws that should be passed, repealed or amended which affect Idaho business.

Local Man, 69, Dies of Long Illness

Thomas Dickerson, 69, 455 Harrison St., died in Magic Valley Memorial Hospital at 6:20 a.m. Thursday of a long illness.

He was born March 15, 1897, at Scofield, Utah, and came to Twin Falls from California in 1943. He was employed at Self's Manufacturing Co. as a machinist for many years. He married Nelle Moore in Twin Falls June 29, 1934.

In addition to his widow, Mr. Dickerson is survived by two daughters, Sherry Dickerson, Twin Falls, and Mrs. Elmo Wilson, Nephi, Utah; two sons, Thomas Dickerson, Moab, Utah, and Earl Dickerson, Los Angeles; three sisters, Mrs. John Hupp, St. Petersburg, Fla., Mrs. Joseph Forbes, American Fork, Utah, and Mrs. Grace Shosted, Tootle, Utah.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Monday in Reynolds Funeral Chapel with Rev. Donald L. Hoffman officiating. Final rites will be held at Sunset Memorial Park.

Boise Woman In Charge of Conference

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The Idaho conference at the 14th Annual Republican Women's Conference May 5-7 at the Sheraton Park Hotel in Washington, D. C., will be headed by Mrs. Dallas Pohlmann, president of the Ada County Republican Women's Club, according to GOP national committeewoman, Mrs. Gwen Barnett, Boise.

Mrs. Barnett in announcing the appointment said the conference is expected to be one of the largest meetings of its type ever held.

Idaho State Sen. Mary Brooks, Blaine County, will preside at the conference, which will be the kickoff to the campaign year.

Idaho women wishing to participate in the conference are asked to contact Mrs. Pohlmann, 6539 Fairfield Ave., Boise.

Rites Honor Mrs. McGill

BURLEY—Funeral services for Mrs. Ada Maudie McGill, Hansen resident, were held Tuesday in the Rupert First Christian Church with Rev. Farrel Zinn and Rev. O. A. Robinson officiating.

Solos were sung by Rev. Zinn and Chester Whitaker, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ryan, Ken Robinson and Harold Sutterfield gave a selection and accompanist was Mrs. Ed Dunn.

Active pallbearers were Ed McGill, Art McGill, Junior McGill, William McGill, Charles Jensen and D. Kowitz. Honorary pallbearers were Dr. O. A. McMiller, Joe Shelby, George Taylor, Russell Jacobsen, Elmer Rosecrans, R. D. Satterfield, Herb Hatman and Dwight Herbert.

Floral arrangements were under the direction of Lloyd's Floral assisted by May McGill, Lorraine McGill, Susan Kowitz, and Cheryl McGill.

Final rites were held in the Paul Cemetery.

Flag Display Is Slated at Buhl

BUHL—Some 110 American 50-star flags will be displayed in the Buhl business district on Sunday by Buhl Thurston Pence Post No. 3604, Veterans of Foreign Wars, in observance of May Day.

May Day is a nationally sponsored VFW event organized to combat the Red May Day demonstrations and parades. This is a special day set aside for the reaffirmation of loyalty to the United States of America and for the recognition of the heritage of our American freedom.

In conjunction with the flag display program the local auxiliary will have a special display arranged in the window of the VFW Hall.

Couple Hurt In Accident

A Twin Falls man and his wife were injured at 8:40 p.m. Tuesday when a vehicle in which they were riding collided with a properly parked vehicle at Shoshone Street and Sixth Avenue, East.

The injured man, William M. Spohr, 66, 2162 Falls Ave., and his wife, Ida, 62, were taken to Magic Valley Memorial Hospital and, according to a source, were released after treatment for cuts and abrasions.

According to police, Spohr was driving his 1961 Cadillac northeast on Shoshone Street when the accident occurred. Spohr told police he had just cleared the intersection at Sixth Avenue when an oncoming vehicle appeared to be crowding him.

He said he pulled toward the right of the roadway and consequently struck the other vehicle. Police said Spohr's car hit a parked auto owned by Mrs. A. D. Nye, 1263 Sixth Ave. E., knocked it partially up on the curb, then smashed into another parked car.

Spohr was issued a citation for failure to drive in a lane roadway.

Resignation of Aide Accepted

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House announced today that President Johnson has accepted with regret the resignation of Thomas C. Mann, a fellow Texan, as undersecretary of state for economic affairs.

Mann's resignation, after 24 years of service with the federal government, will become effective June 1. No successor has been selected.

Mann, a specialist in Latin-American affairs, intends to enter private business.

Cooperation Is Asked by Health Chief

JEROME—Closer cooperation between the school and the health department was urged by Dr. Luther C. Thompson, medical director of the South Central Idaho Health District, at the district board meeting in the Jerome County Courthouse here Tuesday.

Jerome school administrators and public health nurses were specially invited to the board meeting. Discussing the philosophy of public health, the director pointed out a major task of the department is to "increase the competence of individuals, families and communities to cope with their own health problems."

He noted that in addition to precedents already established for clinical care and provision of special facilities in public schools for crippled or retarded children, teachers and administrators are showing an increased interest in the health of school children.

Among the health promotion subjects being taught by public health nurses are mother and baby care, first aid, self help, home nursing and classes in sex education.

He urged school authorities to make known the kind of health services they want, adding that with funds for supplies, equipment and medical supervision available from state and federal sources, better communication is needed between the schools and public health officials to best utilize the funds.

He cited the tuberculin testing project recently completed for the fourth year throughout the district as an example of benefits accruing to communities through cooperation between schools and public health services.

In the entire district, with 6,884 students enrolled, 5,335 persons were tested, with 88 positive and 196 previously known as positive reactors. These 284 persons were X-rayed and one individual is being treated for the disease.

Maurice Klaas, Twin Falls county commissioner who is chairman of the district health board, called for a minute of silence in respect to the memory of Mrs. Isabel Lattimer, wife of Willard Lattimer, Jerome county representative on the board.

Mediator Sees Some Progress For Papers

NEW YORK (AP)—Mediator Theodore W. Kheel today reported "a little progress, but not nearly enough" at a meeting of representatives of the printers union and the World Journal Tribune Inc. which is struck by the Newspaper Guild of New York.

Mr. Meyer, president of the corporation, said he did not think any progress was made. "Neither side has made any definite offer," he said. "We are still too far apart."

Publisher representatives meet today with officers of the AFL-CIO Guild, composed largely of editorial and business office workers.

The Guild struck the newly formed corporation Sunday before it could publish its first newspapers after a merger of three papers. The Guild is demanding that seniority be used as the basis for eliminating the jobs of about half of its 1,800 members who had been employed by the three newspapers.

The 10 unions in the newspaper industry here are holding contract negotiations with the World Journal Tribune Inc.

The key issue between the corporation and Local 6 of the AFL-CIO International Typographical Union is the amount of severance pay to be given the 400 printers losing their jobs in the merger. The three papers had 900 printers.

"LOUD AND CLEAR" may not be the usual jargon heard in a hospital ward, but for 11-year-old Steven Everton it's beautiful music. Steven, injured Sunday during a scouting expedition, is able to converse with his friends, situated on the hospital grounds below his hospital window, by use of a two-way radio. Here Steven talks with Randy Mildon and Eddie Boyd, senior patrol leader. (Times-News photo)

High School Student Does Cancer Paper

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP)—A 17-year-old high school junior has presented a paper on four years of cancer research on animals to the Montreal Medical Society.

Paul H. Bolduc Jr., who works in a home laboratory with equipment valued at $10,000, began collecting rats and guinea pigs while still a seventh grader.

He is a nephew of Dr. Roger A. Cote of Peabody, Mass., chief of laboratory services at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Boston.

So far, Bolduc has not been awarded a science prize in his own Bishop Bradley High School.

"The judges said they couldn't evaluate his project because they didn't know enough about his subject to understand what he was talking about," says the school principal.

Hospitalized Scout Combats Boredom With 2-Way Radio

Steven Everton is not as lonely as an 11-year-old boy might be during confinement in a hospital.

Members of Steven's Boy Scout Troop 70 have solved this problem to some degree.

Steven was injured during a scouting expedition Sunday at Thousand Springs when a rock rolled from a hill and struck him on the head, resulting in a depressed skull fracture.

Consequently, he has been in Magic Valley Memorial Hospital since. All of his friends are about the same age as he, and hospital regulations prohibit children under 14 from visiting patients.

Associating only with adults can be boring for an active 11-year-old, especially in a place as confining as a hospital, so Steven's troop leader, Walter Mildon, and members of his troop have taken steps to combat his boredom.

Although Steven cannot go downstairs to visit his friends, and they cannot come upstairs, the youths are able to talk while in sight of each other through the use of two-way radios.

Steven's room is on the third floor of the hospital, but his friends, armed with the radio units, gather on the grass under his window and converse with him on a unit he operates.

Not only have the radio units succeeded in abating Steven's boredom, but they were partially responsible for quick action

Tax Probe Set For Political Dinner Funds

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Internal Revenue Service said today it has ordered a tax investigation into more than $100,000 raised for Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., at testimonial dinners in Connecticut.

The disclosure followed by one day an accusation by Sen. John J. Williams, R-DeL., that the Johnson administration had embarked on a "backstage plan" to relieve Dodd from any tax liability for the funds.

Associates of Dodd have contended the money, some of which was used to pay personal expenses, represents tax-free gifts.

But Williams said IRS officials have quietly approached some senators during the past two weeks suggesting present law might be fuzzy and some clarifying legislation may be needed.

IRS has denied the charge. An IRS source said today the tax investigation of Dodd will be centered basically in Connecticut but could extend into Washington.

A tax claim against the senator is probable, the source added, if the investigation shows the testimonial dinners were not held out of appreciation for the senator's service and were campaign fund-raising affairs.

Lower Grades

TUCSON, ARIZ. (AP)—University of Arizona professors can lower the grades of a coed who wears shorts or slacks to class—without giving any warning.

Asst. Dean of Women Jean Smith, in disclosing this Wednesday, said faculty members can even fail a coed for dressing improperly.

There have been numerous complaints from professors recently that coeds have dressed too casually, Dean Smith said.

Atomic Arms Agency Wants To Soften "Big Bomb" Image

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Pentagon atomic arms agency wants to soften its "big bomb" image.

So it is about to adopt a new insignia. Gone will be the mushroom cloud—dread symbol of atomic destruction—that now dominates the insignia of the Defense Atomic Support Agency.

Some 4,000 military men assigned to the agency now wear a shoulder patch which also shows a white cloud mushrooming up from a patch of green which represents the earth.

This patch, too, will be replaced by a tamer new design. But the agency's mission won't change.

The agency still will be responsible for conducting underground nuclear weapons tests, preparing for atmospheric tests in event of a breach of the limited test-ban treaty, studying atomic weapons effects, and advising the Defense Department and the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Instead of the dominant mushroom cloud, the new emblem and patch will feature three golden arrows pointing upward, set in a shield of blue.

"What does this mean?" "It represents the three armed services united in a common purpose," an official explained.

Belated Honors

There are a few encouraging signs that the nation's public schools may yet get around to the point of putting at least as much emphasis on scholarship as on athletics. Practically every high school in the nation heaps all sorts of honors on its athletes, ranging from special consideration in grading to the traditional letters or numerals to signify participation in a sport. To top it off, toward the end of the school year there's an awards assembly at which the athletic heroes parade across a platform for some sort of parting tribute.

But what about the scholars? True, their names appear on periodic honor rolls and each graduating class has its valedictorian and salutatorian. Then there's the usually some sort of honor society for those ranked in the top portion of the class scholastically. But does any high school honor its top scholars with a banquet? Does any school have a special assembly for its scholars? And has anyone gotten around to awarding school letters or numerals to those who get the best grades?

Yes, here and there an occasional school is getting around to recognizing there's also honor and prestige connected with top grades. Notable among these exceptions is the high school at Grangeville in North Idaho. A year ago Dr. D. J. Soltman, a member of the Grangeville Elks Lodge, interested his organization and the Soroptimist Club in "doing something" for the top students. Graduating seniors with cumulative grade point averages of 3.2 or better were honored at a banquet. About 150 youngsters from Grangeville High School and smaller schools in the area showed up at the event.

The second annual banquet honoring scholars is being held this spring. Gov. Robert E. Smylie accepted an invitation to speak at the event. With prestige like that, the Elks Lodge and Soroptimist Club are planning to establish the dinner for scholars as an annual event. Hopefully, the practice might spread. The sponsoring organizations at Grangeville are guided by the thought that youngsters, their parents and the entire community should have as much respect for brains as brawn.

Belatedly, perhaps high schools will get around to honoring all sorts of talent instead of concentrating on athletes. Top-notch artists, musicians, or a student with special vocational skills might not show up with athletes or scholars. But are they any less deserving?

Wonderful Drivers

Voters are likely to hear plenty this year about automobile safety and measures to make the highways safer for the motoring public. But there's going to be one little phase of traffic safety that will be neglected rather noticeably by the federal government. No one's going to even suggest that perhaps a driver here and there is something less than safe. The reason is perfectly clear. Drivers are voters and 1966 is an election year, so let's not offend voting drivers.

It has been known for years that one of the worst—if not the absolute worst—hazard to driving is the driver. It was characterized years ago in the saying about the "nut behind the wheel." Yet politicians continue to avoid the subject. Criticism of drivers is taboo in the circles traveled by politicians, regardless of the level of government from local to federal. Here's one of the reasons why drivers' tests are so worthless. If a driver loses his license to operate a car, he's quite likely to show his ire at the polls.

No less a politician than one Lyndon B. Johnson followed the pattern the other day. He noted the American people are aroused and want action to halt the highway slaughter. He called for safer automobiles, better planned and lighted highways and tighter licensing procedures for cars and drivers. Note that the most serious problem of all, namely drivers, was mentioned almost as an afterthought.

It's no accident that most attention recently has been directed at manufacturers of autos and auto equipment. Relatively few voters are involved in such procedure. But has anyone come up with figures to compare the number of accidents caused by poor or faulty construction with the number of accidents caused by faulty drivers?

Even though many safety experts are agreed the nation needs some tough exams to weed out all the unsafe and dangerous drivers, that goal may still lie some years in the future. The American public may be generally ready for a tough testing program, but politicians will have to be given more time to find enough nerve to tackle the problem. Especially in election years.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

By ANDREW TULLY

WASHINGTON — One sultry evening several years ago I was sharing a bottle of the local popskull with a French diplomat in a sleazy Zagreb bar when we were joined by a tweedy American whom my companion introduced as a researcher for some kind of a foundation project in Yugoslavia.

"That's his only cover, of course," the Frenchman explained, a little tiddly with the grape. "Actually, Bob works for your Central Intelligence Agency." He giggled. "Bob even asks me for information."

This seemed a trifle incongruous to a boy who had grown up on the suave and mysterious spies of E. Phillips Oppenheim, and I dismissed the Frenchman's revelation as gin-mill folk lore. But next day I discovered that "Bob" was indeed well known as a CIA spook, especially to French and British types, with whom he traded gossip. It was my first encounter with CIA's policy of infiltrating non-political organizations with its operatives.

A NAIVE SENATOR — Consequently, I am a touch amused by the naivete of Sen. Fred Harris, D-Okla., who has thrown a fit because of a report in a preposterous magazine called "Ramparts" that CIA planted agents in a Michigan State University police-training program in South Vietnam 10 years ago. Harris is surprised that an espionage outfit should act like one, and has demanded that CIA furnish guarantees that it will never again engage in such underhanded tactics.

There are reports that Adm. William F. Raborn, latest director of CIA, has not distinguished himself in the job but I trust he will not be rock-headed enough to give such guarantees to anyone except with the intention of violating them forthwith. Somehow, Senator Harris seems to have formed the impression that spying is a public operation, like running for sheriff, and that secret agents are mostly Eagle Scouts who wouldn't think of deceiving anyone.

STANDARD OPERATION PROCEDURE — The fact is, of course, that one of CIA's most effective means of getting its agents into a given country is to plant them with an innocuous outfit engaged in measuring the local dandelions, or something. CIA also stations spooks in American embassies, but since any embassy staffer is automatically suspect this ruse lacks the Machiavellian touch. The "Bobs" of CIA to the contrary notwithstanding, our spy shop does not on the anomalous operative who ideally is not even known to the embassy crowd.

Indeed, the perfect specimen was an American businessman who ran into Istanbul. He had gone to work for CIA after World War II, using an import business financed with CIA funds as a cover, and although he was rated a top-notch secret agent he was also such an astute businessman that he bought the importing outfit from CIA and turned honest.

In spouting his Sunday School twaddle, Harris is missing the point raised so trenchantly by such as Minnesota's Sen. Gene McCarthy. This is that CIA should be investigated by Congress not because it employs spies in assorted disguises but because it permits those spies to meddle in the internal affairs of foreign countries. CIA's mission is to gather intelligence and so long as it confines itself to that chore it should not be permitted but privately encouraged to use any cover available. A congressional watchdog committee could oversee such arrangements to make sure CIA agents were not making their own foreign policy.

As a taxpayer, I contribute to CIA's $500 million plus annual budget. I do not want my spooks in Zagreb or Istanbul or Hanoi decked out in fancy uniforms with the label "spies" embroidered across their chests, or otherwise, chests. I want them to be known as shoe clerks, engineers, retired school teachers and, if possible, touring archbishops. CIA gets us into enough trouble as it is without printing up a batch of programs with the names and numbers of all the players.

FEEDING THE HUNGRY

America is moving massively against one of mankind's oldest and cruellest foes — hunger. President Johnson's proposal that the United States extend a billion dollars' worth of emergency aid to India during the current year is a gigantic but seemingly necessary step in that land's present dire state. We hope that the other fortunate have- plenty nations around the globe will take up the President's bid to also dig into their wealth and surplus and match America's action.

Although technically these shipments will not be a gift from America, practically this will be the case. India will pay for them in rupees. But, since the United States already has what is apparently an unusable rupee surplus much of rupee fund will be used to finance further and other types of on-the-spot American aid to India. Although the administration believes that it already has stand-by authority to extend this aid to India, it is seeking congressional endorsement. This is right and wise. A billion dollars worth of extra aid (other aid to India programs already in the works will come to an additional half-billion dollars of so) clearly calls for congressional understanding and goodwill.

The very size and importance of the American gesture (Canada has also announced that it is sending one million tons of relief grain) underlines many major issues. The first is the need to speed up world efforts to help India solve its own food problem through more efficient farming, greater production of fertilizers, population limitation and the increase in other products which can be exchanged for food.

India's terrible crisis is also a warning to the surplus-food-producing nations that even their present tremendous output may not meet the world's needs only a few years hence.

Again, the decisiveness of the American action stresses, as few other acts could, the oneness of today's world. Asian famine was once slogged over and then forgotten. Today it calls forth immediate and all-out action. This speaks not only a sharper conscience but a shrewder political realization that all men's fortunes are now inextricably interwoven. Despite setbacks and shortcomings the world is a better, kinder, hopefully and more Christian place because of such acts as this. — Christian Science Monitor.

TOO LITTLE, TOO LATE
Dear Pot Shots:
Along about this time of year, some folks are likely to start thinking about vacations. They might find themselves in the same sort of pinch that our family has discovered belatedly, too little and too late.

We have too little in the way of funds for a vacation and it's too late now to start saving. We go through this same thing every year and wind up staying home which is the most sensible thing to do in the first place if you already live in "God's Country."

GENTLEMAN IN THE FOURTH ROW

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M. D.

The rat has been man's enemy since prehistoric times because each year it destroys millions of dollars worth of food, buildings and merchandise. Many seizures of grain and other foods by the Food and Drug Administration are made because of contamination by rodents. By gnawing electric cables rats may cause short circuiting and fires.

In addition to this rats help to disseminate such dread scourges as bubonic plague, rat bite fever, dysentery and typhus. They breed several times a year and produce 6 to 22 young in a litter. Their persistence in our communities has resulted from indifference and tolerance due largely to lack of public knowledge of their dangerous and destructive potentials.

Garbage containers that are not kept tightly covered are a boon to rats. They will gnaw their way into any place where food is stored unless prevented by solid brick, stone and metal construction. The price of freedom from rats is constant vigilance.

The rats have ways of knowing when such vigilance is relaxed and they will spread the word to members of their family by whatever means rats use to communicate interesting ideas.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department says "there is no sanctuary" in the Viet Nam war.

Does this mean that, if Red Chinese planes attack U.S. planes or forces in Viet Nam, and then flee back to "sanctuary" in their homeland, American planes will pursue them and bomb them in Red China?

Maybe. But until this is spelled out further in words or deeds, what the State Department said will have to carry a question mark behind it.

It is now one war and 15 years later than the Korean war in which the American policy was not to do any fighting in or over Red China even though the Chinese invaded Korea massively under the label of "volunteers."

It was this policy which brought on the historic clash in 1951 between President Harry S. Truman, who wanted to avoid direct war with Red China, and Gen. Douglas MacArthur, who wanted to bomb it. Truman fired him finally.

In a basic sense Truman's position was similar to President Johnson's today. Truman was determined to resist North Korean Communist aggression against South Korea but if possible to limit the war to Korea since enlargement, through the involvement of Red China, might lead to World War III.

Johnson has been determined to resist the aggression of the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese Communists against South Viet Nam while trying to limit the war to Viet Nam and hoping to avoid tangling with Red China.

In Truman's case the "sanctuary" of Red China was preserved and later a truce achieved, even though the Red Chinese were up to their necks in Korea.

For the past 10 days the air war over North Viet Nam has been expanding dramatically, with U.S. fighter planes in a series of dogfights with Soviet-designed MIG21s.

Robert J. McCloskey, the State Department press officer, was asked Tuesday if the Red planes had come into North Viet Nam from Chinese bases. He said "we have no information which would lead to such a conclusion."

But, explaining that he was repeating a position stated by Secretary of State Dean Rusk in the past, McCloskey said about the possibility the MIGs came from Red China: "There is no sanctuary" in the Viet Nam war.

Then, however, he declined to say whether the "no sanctuary" policy means American planes may chase enemy jets into Communist China if the Red craft flee across the frontier.

Until he is willing to say whether that's what it means, then what meaning does "no sanctuary" have at all, unless it's meant to make the Chinese think twice. As of now they don't know what Rusk has in mind?

It was last July 11 that Rusk

NEW YORK (AP) — One of life's little ordeals is deciding on where to spend your vacation.

Why not be different this year and have a really carefree stay-at-home holiday?

Ideally, a vacation should provide a restful change from the ordinary and enable one to recharge his depleted energy batteries.

Where else can this be done better than at home?

Travel is supposed to be broadening, but what is more broadening than lying in a hammock in your own back yard for two weeks reading light fiction, dozing, swatting flies, and filling up on watermelon, fried chicken and ice cream?

If your wife complains that this program doesn't do much for her, tell her you'll listen to her for an hour a day. That's a good bargain. Any wife would rather stay home and talk to her husband if he really listens—than ride around Bermuda peering at nasty things in the seas through a glass-bottom boat.

Perhaps a summer hibernation in your back yard hammock isn't active enough for you. Well, if you're the up-and-going type, there are plenty of interesting things to do in your own community.

A few suggestions: Get a selected group of friends, pass out alpenstocks, then take a guided tour of the nearest supermarket. The average American supermarket is full of more exotic wonders than the Taj Mahal. To pep up interest, you might give a prize to the member of your group who finds the shortest path from the canned dog food section to the chuck roast weekend special.

Plan a trip to your local gas works. The manager will be thrilled to show you how his plant operates. He may even be so pleased at your interest that he will send a guy out to fix the two clogged jets on the back burner of your own gas stove.

Visit all the Civil War monuments in your own and nearby communities. There are few living authorities on Civil War monument prose. You can become one on your vacation. No, it's hard to beat the advantages of vacationing right in your own backyard. Nobody tries to rob you blind by jacking

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON — "What we are witnessing is the birth of a nation."

That is the pronouncement of one policy-maker referring to the decision of the Ky government in Viet Nam to hold Nam-to-hold elections for a constituent assembly. This policy-maker's optimism reflects the up and down swings and down swings and down swings that over the years have produced a cyclical pattern swinging from pessimism close to despair to fresh expanding hope.

This being a political year, the cycle will be accentuated by charges and counter-charges already reverberating. Regardless of the differences within the Republican Party, Viet Nam will be an issue in the fall, unless — and this is an important hedge — negotiations of some kind to end the war are in progress. Realistic Republican observers are sure that if the latter is true Viet Nam will be off the political agenda.

How did we get into Viet Nam with so many troops? And are we going to stay there even though they don't seem to want us? These were two of the questions put most persistently by both Democrats and Republicans during the Easter recess to members of Congress.

Where the blame lies for the trap of Viet Nam will be the subject of heated debate in the months ahead. It has already been the source of a sharp Republican attack in response to a State Department publication, "The Legality of U. S. Participation in the Defense of Viet Nam." Rep. Melvin Laird, Republican whip, called the document "propaganda that makes it difficult for the administration to establish its credibility." He said the authors of the publication were "playing politics with Viet Nam."

He pointed out that responsibility for the U. S. role in Viet Nam is put on Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy with no reference in the document's 16 said North Viet Nam's supporters "must take fully into account" that in the Viet Nam war "the idea of sanctuary is dead."

At that time other U.S. sources said Red China had been told those who might join in an attack on South Viet Nam could not expect immunity from reprisal.

At least saying there is no sanctuary in this war is further than the U.S. government was willing to go in the Korean war. But then the United States was far less equipped for a big war than now.

But with two important elements coinciding—the shaky political situation in Saigon and the upcoming congressional campaign in this country—the ground will be threshed over again. An important part of the American involvement stems from the request of a duly constituted government for American military help. What would happen if a new and neutralist government should ask the United States to leave is probably covered by whole series of contingency plans locked in Pentagon and State Department files. However, no official has been willing to say specifically what might happen under those circumstances. In August, 1964, Congress, with virtually unanimity on the Gulf of Tonkin resolution, gave the commander-in-chief support to "prevent any further aggression" that is the ultimate base Mr. Johnson invariably rests on.

He continued with the ace and then stopped to think. Ginny had played deuce, trey of hearts so he knew that South was out of hearts. Most players would lead another heart anyway on the theory that there is never the harm in forcing declarer. There would be this time because at the other table the dealer was done and Jim Jacoby sitting South proceeded to ruff and run off all his trumps. On the last trump lead his West opponent found himself unable to hold a high heart, three diamonds and two clubs and had to jettison the queen of clubs to give Jim his tenth and contract trick.

Bill anticipated this possibility and shifted to the king of clubs. A low club was played from dummy whereupon Ginny made the best of her hand and signaled come-on with her nine spot. Bill continued with the queen of clubs.

South had to win that one in dummy but the squeeze was long gone. The best he could do was to run off his trumps but Bill hung on to his diamonds and our team won the board.

"Beat Mass" Is Held in Rome Chapel

ROME (AP) — Three mop-haired youth combos banged out a "beat mass" in a Roman Catholic chapel Wednesday night. Listeners couldn't agree whether it was a howling success or a holy mess.

A crowd of 500, including scores of priests, jammed into the oratory of St. Philip Neri. They stomped their feet and bobbed their heads to the rhythm of the electric guitars, drums, organ and singers.

Another 1,000 outside beat on the door trying to get in. Police reinforcements had to squeeze into the crowded courtyard to keep order.

A group of Oratorian Fathers, whose religious order specializes in youth work, sponsored the program.

The 17 young musicians were lined up before a battery of microphones to perform a nine-part mass written by composer Marcello Giobini, with words adapted by an editor of the Vatican newspaper L'Osservatore Romano, the Rev. Carlo Gasbarri. There was no religious celebration of the mass.

The Rev. Sinaldo Sinaldi, a Dominican priest, opened the concert with this explanation:

"In a hard and merciless era like ours, a profane music can be useful in expressing religious sentiments — although I want to assure you that the promoters of this enterprise have absolutely no intention of putting light music into the church's official cult, that is, its worship."

The Rome newspaper Il Messaggero commented: "Never before has there ever been seen such a crowd, unleashing punches and kicks, assaulting a barred door, just to be able to assist at a mass."

Man's Balloon Flight Hopes Fall Again

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Tracy Barnes and his aspirations to cross the United States in a hot-air balloon have crashed again.

Barnes sustained back injuries when he was thrown from his gondola as it struck a rocky peak in the Laguna Mountains Wednesday. The $15,000 balloon and gondola crashed about five miles away.

An air search found Barnes, and a deputy sheriff hiked into the rugged terrain about 55 miles southeast of here. The two men spent the night, and the sheriff's office said a rescue party would bring the men out today.

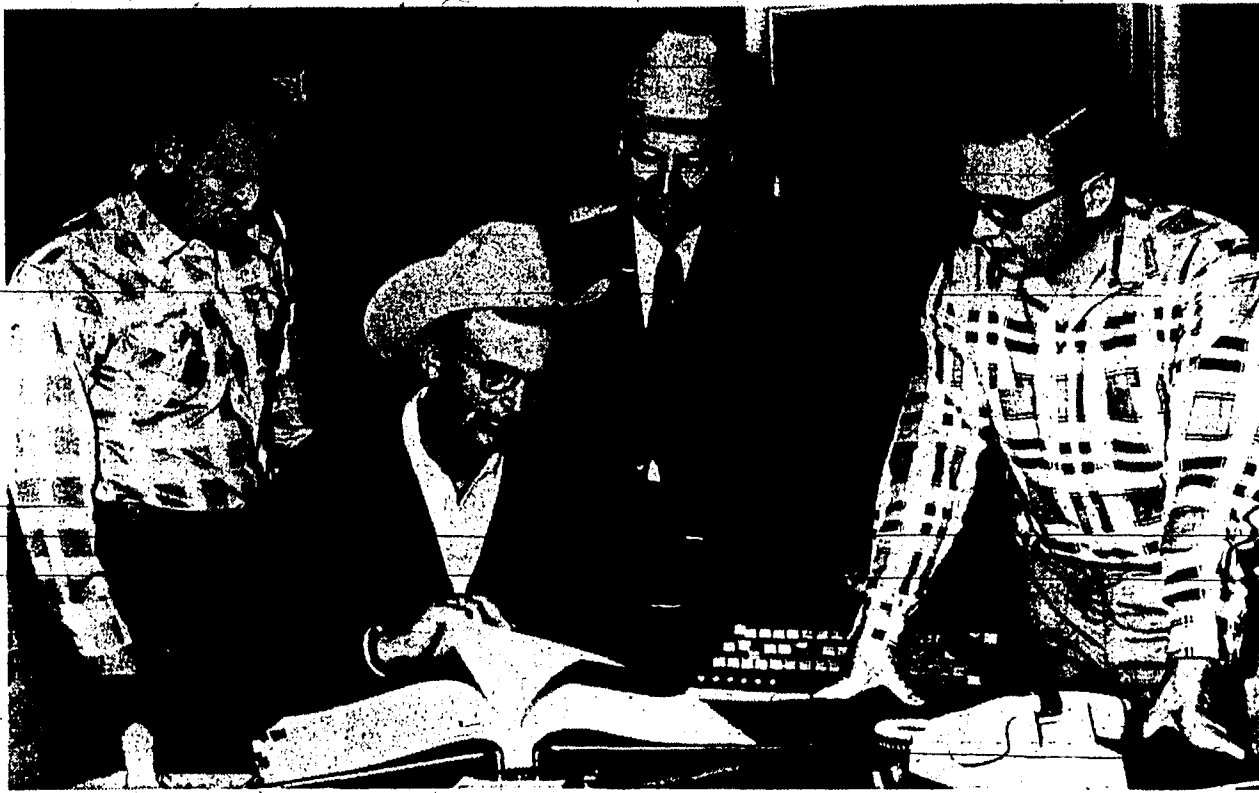

A spokesman for Barnes said he didn't know whether the aeronaut planned to continue his transcontinental flight that began April 9.

At that time, Barnes, 27, of Chester, S.C., flew about 10 miles before bad weather forced him down. Two days and a postponement later, a vent stuck and he and a companion had to parachute to safety.

Since then Barnes repaired the craft and waited for favorable winds.

He took off from here Tuesday night but radioed Wednesday that the air was turbulent and he was descending.

CSI Agri-Business Course Is Keyed to Area Economy

A handful of students now enrolled in the CSI Area Vocational School's unusual Agri-Business program are getting in on the ground floor.

They are involved in the first agri-business curriculum to be set up in the state of Idaho and are studying and working in a key economic area of Magic Valley—the businesses that service the area's thriving agriculture.

"About two-thirds of the listings in the yellow pages are agricultural businesses," notes Herschel Boydston, director of the college's fledgling program. Every agricultural business in the area except farming and ranching would classify as agri-business: Seed houses, feed houses, processing plants, machinery, fertilizer plants, alfalfa drying plants and so on.

Boydston is quick to point out that the CSI agri-business program is not primarily a study of agriculture, as in the standard agricultural curriculum.

Rather, agri-business is a technical, vocationally oriented program intended to acquaint the students with the workings of the businesses that are related to agriculture.

The two-year program consists of a cluster of 24 semester-length courses, in addition to on-the-job training at local businesses.

The program also differs from the standard agriculture course as it is short — two years instead of the usual four-year program — and it is directed toward immediate employment of its graduates in businesses for which they have already specifically examined and for which they have been trained.

Program director Boydston, an easy-talking, cigar-smoking expert in agri-business, currently teaches the specifically agricultural and agri-business sections of the program.

Boydston holds an M.A. in animal science and agricultural education. In addition to being a former high school vocational agricultural teacher, he was head of the Agriculture Division of Cameron State Agricultural

dent's program is in the development of subsidiary skills necessary to be a successful businessman. Here students are given training in business communications, principles of bookkeeping, applied psychology, public relations, business law and typing.

The total program includes such basics as fundamentals of agriculture, principles of agribusiness, chemistry, a nimal husbandry, plant science, soil science, agricultural chemicals I and II, animal nutrition, principles of farm management, product information, principles of merchandising, salesmanship, business math and credit management.

Boydston noted that the entire CSI faculty resources are available for the program. For example, the chemistry course will be taught in the vocational school by the college chemistry instructor, as will math, law, psychology and other related courses.

Boydston emphasizes that the agri-business program is a vocational-technical program rather than an academic program. There is not a great deal of homework assigned students, most being assignments along the student's areas of interest.

Further, the subsidiary courses such as chemistry are not taught from an academic standpoint but from a vocational one. Thus, he noted, the credits from such courses are not transferrable to the academic

Here the students engage in laboratory sessions at area businesses, investigating the business activities, records, accounting procedures, products and management practices.

It is during this time that the invaluable advice of the local agri-businessmen is solicited. Students ask questions about the businesses from their owners and managers directly.

Here, too, the students are given a chance to meet the men who will soon be their employers.

Built into the program is the employment of the agri-business students in local businesses. Here they are able to utilize some of the more esoteric training they may receive and keep sight of the goal — a job.

DISPUTES LEAD
KENDRICK, Idaho (AP)—Greater Idaho's president, Phil Jungert of Lewiston, disputed Idaho's lead in personal per capita income in the nation here Wednesday night.

Speaking to the Latah County Chamber of Commerce, Jungert said the U. S. Department of Commerce announcement hid the truth that Idaho is nearly $400 lower than the national average.

"Another truth revealed in this report," he said, "is that Nevada ranks $565 above the national average."

Jungert said Nevada's thriving tourist industry "has earned its people a most appealing tax structure."

CENSUS PREPARED
BOISE (AP)—A special census of the city of Boise was in final preparation Wednesday. The count, scheduled to begin May 14, is expected to boost the city's population from its official 63,518 mark to well over 70,000.

Each new person will bring the city $7.25 in state liquor apportionment and highway-use tax funds.

The city called on the state department of employment Wednesday to assist in the count, which is expected to cost $18,300.

KEEP OFFICES OPEN
BOISE (AP)—Two county auditors were told Wednesday their offices should be open May 7, Saturday, to receive nominating petitions for legislative positions.

The filing period, under Idaho law, is May 1-7. But May 1 falls on a Sunday and Atty. Gen. Allan Shepard said county offices need not be opened that day.

Shepard's opinion was issued in response to requests for clarification of Idaho's revised election laws from M. K. Cline, Latah County Auditor and Recorder and Beth Durham, Nez Perce County Auditor.

TELLS CANDIDACY
CALDWELL, Idaho (AP)—Conley E. Ward, an aspirant for governor four years ago, announced Wednesday he is a Democratic candidate for secretary of state.

He seeks the seat now held by L. E. Clapp, former state penitentiary warden, who is serving by appointment but has announced he, too, will run for the Democratic nomination. The office became vacant with the resignation of Arnold Williams, also a Democrat.

Edson H. Deal of Nampa has announced for the Republican nomination.

Groundwork Is Laid to End Crisis

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Wilson's special envoy, Oliver Wright, flew home from Africa today with the groundwork laid for talks aimed at ending the Rhodesian crisis.

Meanwhile, another British troubleshooter, Malcolm MacDonald, prepared to leave on a mission to persuade the political leaders of black Africa that the coming talks with the rebel regime of Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith will not constitute a British sellout to Rhodesian white supremacists.

Wright arranged the negotiations in secret contacts with Smith and with Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd of South Africa.

It was the first breakthrough toward a Rhodesian settlement since Smith's white minority government declared independence from Britain last Nov. 1.

The British demand that a settlement provide unimpeded progress toward eventual majority rule by Rhodesia's 4 million black Africans.

In return, Britain is prepared to underwrite and defend the rights of Rhodesia's 250,000 whites and pay for a crash program of African education.

British sanctions against Rhodesia will continue until a constitutional settlement is reached. They failed to produce the almost immediate surrender which Wilson expected.

As things stand now, both sides can go into the talks without undue loss of face.

TRUSTEE RE-ELECTED
SODA SPRINGS (AP)—Incumbent school trustee George Atwood was re-elected from zone one of district 150 during Tuesday's election here.

Atwood received 87 votes to the 80 cast for Harry Osburn. Wallace Johnson received 66 votes to take the zone two seat from Roy E. Walton, incumbent. Walton was recently appointed to fill a vacancy. He received 30 votes.

EDUCATOR NAMED
BOISE (AP)—Appointment of a University of Washington educator as executive director for higher education in Idaho was announced by the State Board of Education Wednesday. John Peacock of Kellogg, board president, said Gilbert J. Carbone, 36, would take office July 1.

He is presently assistant coordinator of college relations at the University of Washington. The position was created by the legislature last year.

MAN CHARGED
POCATELLO (AP)—Robert Owen McDonnell, 38, of 3739 Nora, was charged Tuesday afternoon in justice court with all five of the recent major burglaries investigated by Pocatello police.

He was charged last Thursday with one of the five—the April 10 burglary at the Alameda Pharmacy. Then, police said, McDonnell admitted participation in all five: the April 11 burglary at the J. J. Newberry Co. store; the break-in at the Rino Wholesale Candy Co.; the burglary of tools from a truck at the Idaho Power Co. service building; the April 13 break-in at the Okay Food Center, 805 North Main, and the pharmacy burglary.

Deputy Prosecutor Peter A. McDermott filed an amended complaint, charging McDonnell with first degree burglary in the store breaks and second-degree burglary in the truck break-in.

Jordan Hits Cutbacks in Education Aid

WASHINGTON, D. C. (Special)—Protesting cutbacks in aid to education in impacted areas, Sen. Len Jordan today said the reduction proposed "represents simply a reshuffling of fund distribution, not economy."

In a statement to the Senate Education Subcommittee, Jordan pointed out that despite the proposed cutbacks, the 1967 budget for the Office of Education is up $174 million over appropriations for this year.

Jordan was speaking out against amendments which would reduce funds for school operations and construction to defray the cost of educating students whose parents live or work on non-taxpaying federal property.

He argued that the proposed cut would create new inequities in the distribution of funds "working a severe hardship" on school districts which have already planned their 1967 budgets.

He noted that if the amendments are passed, funds for the school operation in Idaho would be reduced from $2,784,628 to $1,114,263, a reduction of nearly 60 per cent. He emphasized that nearly two-thirds of Idaho is federally owned.

The Idaho Republican took issue with the claim that money from the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 will offset the impacted area reduction. He said that the 1965 Act has nothing to do with the impact of federal ownership.

Even combining Elementary and secondary Education Act funds with reduced impacted funds, he said, results in a loss of over a half million dollars to 22 Idaho districts.

Rep. Joslyn to Seek Re-Election

GLENN FERRY — A. W. Joslyn, state representative from Legislative District No. 19, Thursday announced his candidacy for re-election for a fourth term.

Joslyn asserted in a statement his intention, if re-elected, to continue the legislative programs he has sponsored in the past.

"Idaho needs to find legislative solutions to the problems of water and air pollution; mental health and mental retardation; education and educational facilities; inventory and personal property tax relief, and safety on our highways," Joslyn pointed out.

"These are but a few of the problems facing Idaho. I have been working in the past along these lines and will continue to do so," he concluded.

Withdrawal of Postal Savings Is Urged

Twin Falls Postmaster Frederick Sanger today urged depositors with postal savings certificates to withdraw their accounts from post offices as soon as possible or as soon as the anniversary dates on their certificates are reached.

The Postal Savings System was abolished March 27, 1966, with the signing of Public Law 89-377 by President Johnson. Sanger pointed out that as of April 28, 1966, no deposits can be accepted and no new accounts can be opened. Interest will end on the anniversary date of each certificate.

For convenience all certificates held by a depositor may be cashed at the same time and interest will be paid for each full month they have been outstanding beyond three months from the interest date.

The Postal Savings System was established Jan. 1, 1911, to get money out of hiding and to attract savings of a large number of immigrants who were accustomed to saving at post offices in their own country; also, it served as a safe depository for people who had lost confidence in private banks.

Today, however, with the growth of banking facilities paying much higher interest rates than the two per cent interest per annum paid on postal savings, the system has outlived its usefulness for the American people.

The postmaster noted that as of June 30, 1965, there were 997,029 depositors holding certificates in 3,130 post offices throughout the nation. The number of depositors has been declining, he said, at a rate of about 6,500 per month.

Unpaid deposits remaining in the post office beyond June 30, 1967, will be transferred to the Treasury Department in a trust fund and will be available for payment without time limitation whenever proper claims are received.

Reaches Limit

COVINGTON, La. (AP)—Trouble was a bruin and there's a limit to what a man can bear, explained the farmer to the judge.

Paul Guillot, 71, pleaded guilty Wednesday to charges of shooting a bear out of season but said the 200-pound beast had chased his cattle three times and he had chased the animal out of his pasture twice before killing it.

Judge Frederick Ellis fined Guillot $25 but suspended the fine, saying he would have let the bear trespass only once.

Chamber at Burley Hears State Aide

BURLEY — Louise Shaddock, Boise, was guest speaker during the noon luncheon Monday of the Chamber of Commerce at the National Hotel.

Ken Newman, membership chairman, gave a brief report on the membership drive. Chamber members introduced prospective members.

Jack Snow, chamber member and local business man, outlined why he belonged to the Chamber of Commerce. Businessmen are dedicated to making Burley bigger and better as their own business prospers, Snow stated. Working together to promote growth of our community is a great part of the chamber activities, he said.

As executive secretary of the Idaho Department of Commerce and Development, Miss Shaddock pointed out that the roots of chamber organization are to protect the merchants' interests, stimulate trade and have general promotions.

New York City has the oldest chamber in the United States, while almost every city, town or village now in the U.S. has a chamber organization.

"Little we can do alone, but much can be done by working together," said Miss Shaddock. "We are at the crossroads in Idaho. Chambers of Commerce help to guide and direct growth and development of our state," she added.

Railroad Merger Expected to Bring Improved Service, Lower Fares

NEW YORK (AP)—The heads of the New York Central and Pennsylvania railroads predicted the merger of the once-bitter business rivals will result in improved passenger and freight service and possibly lower fares.

Most unions, state officials and other railroads applauded the unanimous ruling Wednesday by the Interstate Commerce Commission — ICC — that turned two of the nation's rail giants into one in history's largest corporate merger.

Unless legal action is taken to block the consolidation, which had been sought for five years, the two systems are free to unify beginning June 1.

In an effort to insure no job losses from the merger, the ICC ruled the system may not reduce its work force without showing a 5 per cent business drop in any 30-day period.

Another condition imposed on the merged railroad is that it assume operation of the freight and passenger service of the deficit-ridden New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad through 1966. It said the New Haven could not abandon the bulk of its passenger service.

In another action, the commission rejected by a 6-5 vote the merger of the Northern Pacific, Great Northern, and Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroads. The decision against creation of a 25,000-mile system linking the Midwest to the Pacific drew bitter opposition statements from four commissioners and faces the challenge in the courts.

The new Pennsylvania New York Central Transportation Co., with total assets of more than $4 billion, will take the form of a 20,000-mile system stretching from St. Louis and Chicago to Montreal and Washington.

The ICC said the merger would enable the railroads to save $80 million annually after 1974 and that the public would benefit either by improved service or lower rates.

In rejecting the merger plans of the Northern lines, the ICC majority ruling said the individual lines are prospering and had failed to show that their proposed merger would improve service by eliminating competition.

The Northern lines may contest the ruling before a federal court, which could remand the case to the ICC or uphold the finding.

This Week's Food Prices Unforeseen

NEW YORK (AP)—Prices in the nation's food markets this week are about as unpredictable as the weather.

And shoppers who are basing some hope of lower food bills this summer on the weather are holding their breath.

A cold snap in the Pacific Northwest dropped temperatures to well below freezing in some areas, causing some damage to the pea crop and to sweet cherries, apricots, plums and early apples. Plums were badly hurt in some Oregon areas. The cold slowed the Northwestern asparagus harvest.

Froees also have damaged the sweet cherries in Michigan. The Florida citrus crop is coming along fine, but needs rain. So does the whole Northeast — dried by a five-year drought.

Tornadoes ripped through the Tampa, Lakeland, the Winter Haven areas of Florida earlier this month, but caused little damage to the fruit.

In Wisconsin, it has been too wet and too cool, slowing pea planting.

A big item in the mounting food bills for months has been meat.

Pork played a major role. Prices reached high levels during the winter when production was down.

As consumers switched to other meats, the prices of the substitutes rose, too. Now pork marketings are near their usual spring peak, and prices have declined.

Directory Is Eyed at Meet At Shoshone.

SHOSHONE — Members of the Chamber of Commerce saw the proposed city directory at their meeting Monday noon.

Clarence Magoffin, from the Junior Chamber, displayed the directory. He proposes the directory include a picture of the City Park on the front cover and a city map inside.

A report was given from Pacific Northwest Travel Association stating 1,000,000 people had attended travel shows so far this year and more will be held later in Los Angeles. This organization has advertised the Pacific Northwest attraction.

It was announced open house will be held at the Atomic energy plant at Arco. Free tickets are available at the county treasurer's office here for anyone interested in attending.

Museum Week Plans Slated At Hailey

HAILEY — Members of the Hailey Chamber of Commerce Tuesday heard Jack Davies of the Blaine County Historical Museum Board tell of proposed work to be done at the museum building this spring.

Davies said next week will be "Museum Week" and all who wish to help finance the enlargement and improvement of the building may purchase a brick to be used in the work.

He said while the museum was started on a small scale because of meager finances several years ago, it has now outgrown its facilities. Sixteen hundred people registered at the museum last summer.

He said the political items of Joseph W. Fuld were of especial interest to visitors.

"Old timers coming back to visit spend much time looking at early day pictures of the area," he said.

An outstanding division which will be added this year is a collection on Ezra Pond, who was born here.

"We are going to have a 'school room' too, Davies said. We have procured the bell from the old grade school here, as well as some of the old desks, a book on the Palmer Method of writing and some McGuffey readers used back in the 1880's and 1890's when our grandparents went to school here."

Davies asked for volunteer workers and president Leo Stavros and several others said they would help with a shovel and wheelbarrow after store hours.

Davies decried the fact that so many articles, such as the gold weighing scales used in the days when Hailey was a booming mining camp, have been taken elsewhere.

He said the addition to the building will cost $4,000 and urged everyone to assist in making it possible.

He expressed the regret of all members at losing the membership of Lloyd Smith, manager of the Hailey Idaho Power Co., who will move to Buhl, and welcomed Robert Vernon, new manager.

He appointed Russell Horn to represent the chamber at all North Side Communities meetings, a position which Smith had held.

COLLEGE OF IDAHO SENIOR, Anna Marie Walton Bales, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Walton, Hansen, will present a speech and music recital at 8:15 p.m. Wednesday in Jewett auditorium. She will perform folk songs and works by Shakespeare, Robert Frost and Bela Bartok.

College of Idaho Senior Sets Music, Drama Recital

THE COLLEGE OF IDAHO, Caldwell — College of Idaho senior Anna Marie Walton Bales, Hansen and Caldwell, will present a music and drama recital at 8:15 p.m. Wednesday in Jewett Chapel Auditorium. The program is open to the public without charge.

Mrs. Bales, who will graduate in June, has majored in English with an emphasis in drama. She is a voice student of Charles Ross. Her program will include a group of four Spanish folk songs with guitar accompaniment by her husband, Jan Bales. Three Hungarian folk songs by Bela Bartok, a reading by Garin de Lorca, two selections by Robert Frost, one done as a reading and "The pasture" which has been set to music and a scene from Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew."

A campus favorite performer, particularly as a comedienne, Mrs. Bales has received numerous awards at the C. of I. for her acting. She won the "Asher" trophy last year as best actress for her performance in "The Seagull." She received the Best Supporting Actress award in 1963 for her role in "Little Mary Sunshine" and an honorable mention for her parts in "The Matchmaker" and in "Death of a Salesman." She also has played in "As You Like It" and "The Boyfriend."

She was author of "Masquerade" one of the one-act plays presented by C of I students last weekend on campus. She has served as corresponding secretary of the Ring sorority, has been a reporter on the Coyote, campus newspaper, has written for Prospectus, been a member of the Baroque choir and the concert touring choir. She directed a one-act play last year and is a member of Scarlet Masque and Alpha Psi Omega, campus drama honorary.

She is currently completing her student teaching at Homedale High School where she is directing three one-act melodramas which will be presented Friday. She is slated to perform Saturday night in the college talent show for Parents' Day and is working on her first film which will be shown May 5 as part of the entertainment for the senior dinner given by President and Mrs. Knox.

Mrs. Bales is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Walton, Hansen.

Film Slated

The College of Southern Idaho Film Society will present Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest," at 8 p.m. Friday, at O'Leary Junior High School Auditorium.

Starring in the film are Glynis Johns, Michael Redgrave, John Greenwood, Dante Edith Evans and John Gielud.

There will be no admission charge.

Stowaway Girl Forced to Leave Vessel

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — The British submarine Walrus continued its journey home today with nothing but Her Majesty's sailors aboard — after having dropped off a stowaway teen-age girl who said she wanted to visit England because she liked English boys.

The girl, Barbara McVay, 17, of Baltimore, is back with her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Rubert Turso.

The Walrus and two more British subs — the Osiris and the Opportune — were docked in Baltimore since last Thursday, following NATO maneuvers in the Atlantic.

When the Walrus left for home Wednesday, Barbara was hiding in the conning tower.

After four hours, exhausted fumes from the sub's engine sickened her and she turned herself in.

"It's a good thing she got sick," a police detective said later. He said the compartment where she hid would have filled with water if the sub had submerged.

When she did come out of hiding, the sub radioed the British Embassy and was ordered to get the girl back to land immediately.

An Army engineers patrol boat met the sub in the Delaware Canal. Barbara was placed in the Wilmington detention home until her parents arrived several hours later.

Agreement Is Made With Power Firm

JEROME — An electric service agreement was entered into with the Idaho Power Co. by the Board of County Commissioners at its April meeting, commissioners said Wednesday.

The agreement will provide for night lighting service of the parking area at the rear of the courthouse upon which the jail faces.

Quarterly reports of county officers were examined and ordered filed. The reports indicated revenues of $2,303.29 from the auditor's office; $2,328 from the probate judge's office; $1,755.50 from the justice of the peace's office and $323.40 from the sheriff's office.

A letter from Dr. L. M. Nehr, county coroner, was reviewed by the commissioners. It was decided to appoint Dr. James E. Sloot as acting coroner during the projected absence of Dr. Nehr from June 1 through August, 1966.

The commissioners signed an agreement for the consideration of $1 with the Mountain States Telephone Co. for the purchase of a right-of-way for placement of a buried cable near the Jerome airport.

At an ensuing special meeting of the board, salary schedules were determined for elected county officials for the two-year period commencing Jan. 9, 1967. They are auditor, $5,512; assessor, $5,292; treasurer, $5,292; sheriff, $5,292.

Jerre Cover Gets Pencil for Talk

Jerre Cover received the blue pencil for his speech on "Man With a Plow in the Sky" during the Tuesday evening meeting of Toastmasters No. 149.

Other speakers were Royal Slotten and Jerald Noh, Mike Hamilton acted as toastmaster. Rudy Ashenbrenner was the chief evaluator with Harry Turner, Les Crowley, Ted Ryan and Dave Hamlet as other evaluators.

Joe Ryan acted as timer and Ray Lincoln served as grammarian.

DISCHARGED — Jack Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Palmer, north Shoshone, has received his honorable discharge from the Armed Forces and has returned home. His parents met him at Boise airport over the weekend.

LaRELL PATTERSON and SCOTT PECK have been named Carey delegates to the 1966 American Legion Boys' State Convention to be held at Boise College Campus. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Don Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Peck.

RECOVERING — Mrs. C. E. Spence and her son, Aaron, are recuperating at their home here from injuries received in a automobile accident Saturday as they were returning from Mountain Home.

STATIONED IN HAWAII — KING HILL — T. Sgt. and Mrs. Wert Hamrick and family, Little Rock, Ark., visited Mr. and Mrs. Joel Young and family en route to the Hawaiian Islands where he will be stationed with the Air Force.

Rupert GOP Plans Meet For May 6

RUPERT — A newly formed organization "Potluck Politics" has scheduled a meeting for May 6 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Burton.

Purpose of this group is to give its members an opportunity to become well informed about issues pertaining to the Republican party on the national, state and local levels and to discuss these topics.

Officers recently elected are Mr. and Mrs. Roger Jones, co-chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. George Burton, vice chairmen; Roger Ling, secretary; Judy Ling, treasurer, and Larry Freeman, membership chairman.

During the April meeting, Ralph Smith, county chairman, led a discussion relative to the

Mrs. Hartley Gives Program For Area Club

WENDELL — "Hair Care and Styling," presented by Mrs. Fred Hartley, was the program feature for the Pollyanna Club at the home of Mrs. M. J. Schmeckpepper.

Models for the demonstration were Mrs. Phares Schiffler and Mrs. Lewis Adams.

Mrs. Fester Andersen, club president, introduced the program guests. Other guests were Mrs. Bort Whipple and Mrs. Ezra Richan.

Members voted on the lessons they would like for the coming year. Mrs. Paul Kearley reported on the district meeting held in Rupert. Mrs. Leonard Scheer and Mrs. Richard Kaster received gifts.

Appointed to the yearbook committee were Mrs. Kirby Hill, Mrs. W. H. Niccum and Mrs. Arthur Peterson.

Plans were made for the May 5 meeting to be with Mrs. Melvin Gibson.

Wendell Unit Hosts Buffet

WENDELL — Members of the Junior and Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship and their advisers were guests of the Together Group for a buffet supper served at the church.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph VanLeeuwen, Twin Falls. VanLeeuwen presented his program on the African Safari.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Howden and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bitterli, officers of the Together Group, were in charge of the arrangements.

Refreshments were served.

3 Lose Jobs For Traffic Violations

Three men employed by the T and W Excavating Co., Twin Falls, lost their jobs with the company Tuesday after Twin Falls Justice of the Peace Al Robinson found them guilty of stop sign violations.

Elver Tell, one of the company owners, said he "let the men go" partially because the job was completed and partially because he could not afford to have persons working for him who do not obey the law.

Tell said, too, the men were tied up in Justice Court all morning Tuesday, and had they still been on his payroll he would not have had anyone to drive his gravel trucks.

According to a complaint signed by Bruce Lulloff, Twin Falls, the three men continuously ran a stop sign five miles east of the Washington School, which goes across State Highway 50.

Lulloff said he wouldn't have signed the complaint if the men had only failed to stop once, but he said it made him angry when they continually failed to stop before crossing the highway.

Lulloff came to the state police and they in turn sent him to James May, Twin Falls County prosecutor, to file the complaint. Deputy Sheriff Wayne Hankins served warrants on the three men, John Green, Louis Meyers, and Manuel Govia, all Twin Falls, as they arrived for work Tuesday morning. When they appeared before Judge Robinson, he found them guilty and fined them $30 each plus $5 court costs.

Whillock Resigns From State Board

BOISE (AP) — The resignation of Western Whillock of Boise, an announced Democratic candidate for governor, from membership on the State Board of Health was accepted today by Gov. Robert E. Smylie.

He has served on the board since its creation in 1957.

The law requires the five-member board to be bi-partisan and Smylie must choose a Democrat to replace Whillock. He gave no indication who the new member might be.

Elected

BUHL—Robert Erkins, Buhl, has been elected first vice president of the National Fisheries

He was elected at the Institute's annual convention earlier this week at Houston, Tex. Erkins, president of the Snake River Trout Co., is chairman of the Fish and Seafoods promotion committee of the Institute and has been its treasurer.

Club Gives Donation to Easter Seal Kindergarten

The Twin Falls Easter Seal Clinic kindergarten was the recipient Wednesday afternoon of funds raised by the Richfield Burmah Home Improvement Club for the advancement of special schooling of the speech and hearing handicapped children.

Mrs. Eugene Tjarks, kindergarten teacher, accepted the funds on behalf of the clinic and the 15 handicapped children currently attending the kindergarten.

The Burmah Club raised the money by selling a homemade quilt. This is the second quilt the group has made this year, the first being sold and the money used to install a new sound system in the Richfield High School.

Lions Club Discontinues Dinner Meets

HAGERMAN—Members of the Hagerman Lions Club voted to cease the monthly dinner meetings at their meeting Monday evening, Merle Owsley, president, reports.

Instead of monthly dinner meetings with their wives as guests, they voted to have four social meetings a year, in the form of picnics or potluck suppers.

A committee headed by Henry Cherry was appointed to find out the types of fireplaces and signs that should be used at the new Lions Club sponsored state park, south of Hagerman on Highway 30.

S. Z. Thayer was appointed to check into the needs of the village library and report at the next meeting. Elvere (Tommy) Thompson was asked to study the possibility of a public auction, sponsored by the unit.

The annual Spring trash haul will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday. All members are to report at the Hagerman Hotel at 1 p.m. and anyone having trash to haul should contact C. W. Choules or Ralph Miller.

This annual event is for the persons living in town that haven't any way to haul their own trash. All members agreed if they could not come themselves, they should furnish a boy, or pay for a boy, so that the work can be done in one afternoon.

The next executive meeting will be May 9, when officers will be installed.

Removes Sign Discontinues

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Charley Haley, city traffic engineer, agreed Wednesday to take down the sign outside the Temple Beth Israel Cemetery and put up one saying "Not a through street."

A cemetery official protested the present sign, which says: "Dead, end."

Shirley Silvers Heads 4-H Club

MURTAUGH — Shirley Silvers was elected president of the Better Feeders and Fitters 4-H Club at a meeting held Sunday afternoon at the John Silvers farm.

Other officers elected are Dana Silvers, vice president; Linda Morrison, secretary-treasurer, and Wilma Silvers, reporter.

F. V. Morrison, leader, discussed the projects chosen by the members for the year. The projects range from cattle to canning. Club activities for the year were planned.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Silvers concluding the meeting. A meeting will be held at the F. V. Morrison farm at 2:30 p.m. Sunday. Anyone interested still may join the club.

Forest Aide Shows Slides At PTA Meet

George Frey, forest ranger in the Sawtooth National Forest, presented a program of slides and narration about the Sawtooth Primitive Area at the last meeting of the Bickel School PTA meeting.

Mrs. Marvin Fouts, new PTA president, said the program proved to be of vital interest to the group because many local people do not realize the effort and time involved in a project of maintenance of this scope.

Frey also pointed out that this area is now being considered by Congress for either a national park or a national recreation area.

This "brainchild" created by Senator Frank Church, according to his proposed legislation, would put an end to hunting in these areas and open them up to tourists at random.

Six Records Threatened In Southern Idaho Loop Track Meet Here Friday

Only one defending champion is back but six records will be in danger at 1 p.m. Friday afternoon when the Southern Idaho Conference Track and Field Championships are run off at the Twin Falls High School track. Borah's Lions are expected to regain the title they lost to Boise last year with the Braves picked to come in second. Nampa is figured at third with Capital fourth.

Olmstead-Led O'Leary Tops Robert Stuart

Big Steve Olmstead piled up three firsts and a second Wednesday afternoon to point the O'Leary Cubs past the Robert Stuart Bears 77-56 in the annual dual meet between the Twin Falls junior high "arch rivals."

Olmstead, big enough to be a senior now, clipped off the high hurdles in 18.1 and won the lows in 23.7 despite wind and some striding problems. He won the pole vault at 11 feet, 1 1/2 inches and wound up second in the broadjump at 18 feet, 8 inches, three inches behind champion Jeff Youtz.

He was particularly impressive in the low hurdles where he bounced over the first six barriers in seven strides cadence. The wind caught up with him then and he had to alternate over the final two, hitting both.

Stuart made a good run at the deep Cubs but O'Leary sweeps in the 100 and 400-yard dashes precluded any upset hopes.

While the competition was tough the times and performances, with the exception of Olmstead, weren't particularly outstanding.

800-yard relay — Stuart, O'Leary, 1:41.3.
100-yard dash — Haas, O.; Miller, O. and Frazier, O. 11.8.
Girls 100-yard dash — Billington, S.; Roberts, O. Thompson, S. 12.6.
500-yard relay — Stuart, O'Leary, 2:14.4.
400-yard relay — O'Leary, 55.6.
400-yard dash — Holladay, O.; Gratiot, L.; Young, O. 60.1.
100-yard hurdles — Olmstead, O.; Brown, S.; Hanson, O. 23.7.
800-yard run — Klemm, S.; Sloan, O.; Durham, S. 2:14.
Medley — Stuart, 4:11.
Girls 200-yard shuttle — O'Leary, 22.0 (Stuart was disqualified for first).

Two-mile run — Brancroft, O.; Pendegras, O.; Miller, S. 12:5.8.
250-yard dash — Haas, O.; Quenell, S.; Gage, O. 25.4.
Mile relay — O'Leary, 3:54.5.
Pole vault — O. Olmstead, O.; D. Olmstead, O.; Van Engelen, 0.11 feet, 1 1/2 inches.

100-yard dash — Youtz, S.; S. Olmstead, O.; Miller, O. 18 feet, 11 inches.
Shotput — Little, O.; Qualla, S.; Dham, S. 38 feet, 5 inches.
Discus — J. Donnelly, S.; Qualla, S.; Brown, O. 105 feet, 8 inches.
High jump — O. Olmstead, O.; Youtz, S.; Brown, S. 6 feet, 2 inches.

Team scoring — O'Leary 77, Stuart 56.

Ricks Rips Boise In Two-Way Meet

REXBURG, Idaho (AP) — Ricks College defeated Boise College 98-47 Wednesday in an Intermountain Collegiate Athletic Conference dual track meet.

Ricks won 14 of the 17 events. Boise trackmen won the 400-yard dash, the mile relay and the shot put.

Four Ricks College records were broken by the Vikings. The 44-yard relay time of :44.3 bettered the :44.4 set last year. Ross Johnson of Delta, Utah ran the intermediate hurdles in 41.4 seconds to topple the old mark, 42.1.

Don Zaph of Edmonton, Alta., Canada beat his own record 2:00.0 in the 800-yard run, covering the distance in 1:59.6.

Archers Urged To Try for Carp

BOISE (AP) — Bow and arrow enthusiasts were urged on Wednesday to try their skill at shooting non-game fish in Idaho streams.

The Fish and Game Department said it is legal to use a bow in shooting such non-game fish as carp. Spears or snagging devices may not be used above water although spears may be used by scuba divers.

"Not many archers can hit a jumping carp in that fleeting moment it gleams before the splash back," the department said, "but this species of fish is an easy mark for arrows when they crowd into shallow backwaters to spawn."

Long Lines Vie For NBA Tickets

BOSTON (AP) — Basketball fans began lining up at Boston Garden early Wednesday, waiting for tickets to go on sale for the final game of the National Basketball Association playoff between the Boston Celtics and the Los Angeles Lakers Thursday night.

Those in the front of the line said they had been waiting since midnight — 1 1/2 hours before the Lakers forced the series into a seventh game by defeating the Celtics 123-119 at Los Angeles.

Tickets for all 13,909 seats were sold within two hours after the box office opened at 9 a.m.

McCormick, Solons Blank Yankees 2-0

NEW YORK (AP) — Mike McCormick's five-hit pitching and Ken McMullen's two-run double in the third inning gave the Washington Senators a 2-0 victory over the New York Yankees Wednesday.

Wednesday's defeat was the 11th for the Yankees against only two victories.

McCormick, the earned run leader in the National League in 1960 before arm trouble threatened to end his career, scattered four singles and one double.

Manager Johnny Keane of the Yanks benched left-handed hitting Roger Maris against the southpaw and played Lou Clinton in right field.

Acclimating Limit Placed On Olympians

ROME (AP) — The International Olympic Committee ruled Wednesday that no athlete who will compete in the 1968 Games in Mexico City can have more than four weeks of special, high-altitude training in the last three months before the opening ceremony.

IOC president Avery Brundage of Chicago said any violation of the rule would be a "gross breach of sportsmanship" and that the committee had approved the restriction so that no athlete or country could "take an unfair advantage over other competitors."

The rule, Brundage said, does not apply to those "who normally live or train at such heights," as that of Mexico City.

This clearly meant that athletes from high areas would still have an advantage, but Brundage had acknowledged this all along.

Brundage said the IOC would watch developments in the last three months and any violation of the rule could possibly involve disqualification. Then he emphasized that it was up to the national Olympic committees and the sports federations to enforce the rule so that no one "takes an unfair advantage over other competitors."

There has been much criticism of the choice of the Mexico City site because it is 7,500 feet above sea level. Many critics contend this would endanger the health of athletes.

Adolfo Lopez Mateos, president of the Mexican organizing committee, angrily disputed such charges Wednesday in a hearing before the IOC. Brundage himself said that at least 12 medical investigating commissions had reported "there is no danger whatsoever."

Lopez Mateos said it was far-fetched "to assume that the danger of death lurks for an athlete who practices sports at an altitude similar to ours, even though these athletes may be accustomed to sea-level performances."

MANAGER SIDELINED

BOSTON (AP) — Chicago manager Eddie Stanky was confined to his hotel room suffering from the flu Wednesday as the White Sox met the Boston Red Sox in the opener of a two-game series at Fenway Park.

BRUIN POLE VAULT CHAMPIONS, who cleared 12 feet, 11 1/2 inches last week to establish a new-school mark, are sophomore Scott Cryder, left, and senior Ken Thompson. Just 20 minutes after this shot was taken, the luckless Thompson sustained a broken leg in a practice vault. Cryder, who just missed 13-3 Saturday at Boise, will be shooting for the Southern Idaho Conference record and title Friday when the Bruins host that event at 1 p.m. (Times-News photo)

Tight Battle Seen in Dual Meet Between Idaho and Idaho State

POCATELLO — Track and field fans attending the annual meet between University of Idaho and Idaho State this Saturday in Boise should see another close battle as well as a fine collection of outstanding individual athletes, says Coach Milton (Dubby) Holt of the ISU Bengals.

The state's two major educational institutions will be meeting in track for the third time, with competition getting underway at 1:00 p.m. Saturday in Bronco Stadium. The Vandals, coached by Doug MacFarlane, won last year's meet 76-69.

"I look for another tight meet this year," said ISU's veteran mentor and director of athletics, who is now in his 20th season as coach of the Bengal tracksters.

Holt said his own team should be plenty tough in the running events, with "the Vandals holding a definite edge in field events."

Defending Big Sky Conference champions competing in the meet include giant football star Ray McDonald, former prep All-America at Caldwell High School, and now a three-event track star for Idaho. Last year as a sophomore he 6-4, 235-pound whiz re-wrote Big Sky Conference records in the shot put and discus throw with marks of 56' 3/4" and 169' 7".

McDonald also made the '65 All-American track and field team by throwing the discus 177' 3/4" for third place in the NCAA meet. His best marks thus far in the early 1966 season are 57-8 1/2" and 181-8 1/2". The latter mark would have been good enough to win the NCAA discus championship in all but seven years since 1922.

The Vandals have another returning conference champion in Dwayne Turpin, who pole vaulted 14' last year. Doug Rambeau of the Vandals placed second in the Big Sky high jump and will also be in action Saturday, along with teammate Rich Kearney, second in the Big Sky's 440-yard dash in '65.

Bengal conference champions still on hand for Coach Holt are sprinters John Briggs and Len (Buddy) Frazier and hurdler Ben Miller. The latter has developed sensationally since competing for Ontario, Ore., High a few years ago. He set new Big Sky records last year with times of 14.0 in the high hurdles and 37.6 in the 330 hurdles.

Another top ISU returnee is sprinter Brent DeWitt, who has run the 100 in 9.6 and the 220 in 21.4 this year.

Match May Be on Satellite TV

NEW YORK (AP) — Home television of the Cassius Clay-Henry Cooper heavyweight title fight in London, May 21, via Early Bird satellite is under discussion.

Barry Frank, director of sports planning for the American Broadcasting Co., said Wednesday the proposal was being discussed with Main Bout, Inc., which holds the ancillary rights to the fight. If the telecast is arranged it will be seen on ABC's Wide World of Sports program, Saturday afternoon from 4 p.m. to 5:30 p.m., EST.

Class B Athletes Begin Climb Toward State in 3 Sub-Districts Thursday

Magic Valley's Class B athletes begin their first steps toward state qualifications Thursday in three sub-district track meets. The subdistricts, split three ways for the first time, will be run off at Robert Stuart Junior High school track in Twin Falls for the Southside; Gooding State track for the Northside, and Gooding High School track for the Westside. The top finishers in the events will advance to the

Twin Falls, Valley Trade Baseball Wins

Twin Falls "B" team and Valley split a doubleheader Wednesday afternoon, Valley taking the opener 6-2 behind the pitching of Black and Twin Falls coming back to win 2-1 in the five-inning nightcap.

Valley held only a 2-1 lead going into the last inning in the first game but exploded for four runs to ice it. Myers was hit by a pitch but forced at second on Kline's bouncer. Black followed with a single and two runs scored on Watkins two-bagger. Hughes singled Watkins home and eventually scored himself on a hit by Fine.

Valley drew first blood in the second game when Kline doubled with one out in the second inning. Black singled him to third and Kline scored seconds later on a throwing error.

Then came Twin Falls' decisive rally. Wilson singled and stole second. He scored on a throwing error while Wickham was walking. Wickham moved to third on a steal and another error and brought the winning run home on a suicide squeeze bunt by Stroud.

Carey Game Club Hears BLM Report

CAREY — "Wildlife on Public Lands" and "Paths Across Public Lands" were the titles of films shown by Lorin Brazil, Bureau of Land Management (BLM) Shoshone, when the Red and Gun Club met Tuesday night.

Brazil said that during a flight over the Magic Reservoir area 50 elk were spotted and are expected to remain there.

He said the Club should obtain a special use permit from the BLM to use public land for a proposed rifle range.

A report on the district fourth district meeting was given by Ray Baird. Lee Hunt, district conservationist, invited members to a meeting on cleaning up streams and lakes to be held May 5 with time and place to be announced.

The Del Roby Show will be held at 7:30 p.m. May 17 at the LDS Church and will be sponsored by the Rod and Gun Club Milton Bame, president, announced. Members decided to donate $10 to the Boys' State fund.

Falcons to Open Against Eagles

NEW YORK (AP) — The New Atlanta Falcons will open the National Football League exhibition season schedule against Philadelphia in Atlanta Stadium Aug. 4.

Pete Rozelle, NFL commissioner, said Wednesday five of the 37 pre-season games would be televised.

The first nationally televised contest will pit the champion Green Bay Packers against the College All-Stars Aug. 5 at Soldier Field in Chicago.

Packers Obtain Idaho's Arndt

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The Green Bay Packers, champions of the National Football League, went to work on the future by making their first major trade of the season.

Looking for quarterbacking depth, Coach Vince Lombardi sent Tom Moore, a proven half-back who had played on three Packer championship teams, to Los Angeles Tuesday for a pair of unknown but promising players and a draft choice.

In return for Moore, Lombardi's original first round draft choice for 1969, the Packers acquired Ron Smith, a jumbo sized quarterback who spent most of last season on the Rams' taxi squad, and Dick Arndt, 6-foot-4, 250-pound Idaho tackle who has a year of eligibility left.

district finals in Twin Falls May 6. All begin at 1 p.m. The divisions for the sub-districts include Northside — Carey, Dietrich, Richfield, Shoshone, Wood River and Camas County; Southside — Kimberly, Declo, Hansen, Murtaugh, Raft River and Oakley, and Westside — Castelford, Hagerman, Bliss, Gooding State, Glenns Ferry and Wendell.

Since Twin Falls has 10 lanes on the straight — away and only seven on the curve, the number qualifying for district vary. The formula is three places for the 100-yard dash; two places and the top two thirds by time for the hurdles; two places and top two thirds by time in the relays, 220- and 440-yard dashes, and top three places in the distances and field events.

Wendell, with one of its best teams in nine years, is favored in the Westside sub-district. Bay, a defending champion in the broadjump, could win a couple of firsts.

Castelford's Nolen Carter and Lance Arave, Gooding State, will lock horns in the Westside high hurdles while defending state two-mile champion Larry Johnson, Gooding State, has little fear of repeating. Carter and Arave are joined by Wendell's Dan Peterson in what should be a good low hurdle contest.

On the Southside the low hurdles should again provide a good race with Declo's Jon Goodman battling Jim Denton, Kimberly. Dana Tracy looms as the big individual of this division in the sprints and the shotput. Raft River looks good in the mile with Alan Briggs while Thornton should get the two-mile crown for Declo.

Defending state pole vault champion Mike Matthews, Declo, is heavily favored.

The team race should rage between Kimberly and Raft River. Shoshone brings a lot of individual talent to the Northside with Fred Trenkle looking strong in the field events and Bruce Everetts the mile favorite.

Salmon Marking Program Slated

PORTLAND (AP) — A two-year salmon marking program involving 20 Columbia River hatcheries was announced by the Bureau of Commercial Fisheries Wednesday.

Under the study, the bureau said, three million young coho salmon produced in hatcheries on the Columbia would be marked by clipping their fins. An equal number will be marked next year.

The program, which starts next month, is to evaluate hatcheries as fish producers and to help officials decide whether their operation should be continued.

Stuns U.S.

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Yugoslavia scored the major upset in the world amateur basketball championships Wednesday night defeating the United States 69-59.

It was the first defeat for the Americans in the tournament.

The Yugoslavs moved into a three-way tie for first place with the United States and the Soviet Union in the final — round competition. Each has a 3-1 record with two games to play.

L.A. Rookie Stops Braves On Five Hits

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Wes Parker knocked in three runs and rookie Don Sutton pitched a five-hitter as the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated Atlanta 4-1 Wednesday night.

Sutton, a 21-year-old right-hander walked one and struck out 10. Hank Aaron's homer in the ninth ruined his shutout bid.

Los Angeles collected 14 hits, including four singles by shortstop Maury Wills, who returned to the line-up after missing four games because of a pulled leg muscle.

Parker drove in his three runs with a triple and sacrifice bunt. Atlanta 000 000 001—5 0. Los Angeles 000 301 00x—14 0. Eischer, Hippauf (3), Olivo (5), Umbach (8) and Torre; Sutton and Roseboro. W — Sutton 2-2. L—Hippauf 0-1. Home runs — Atlanta, Aaron (5).

THURSTON SIGNS
GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Veteran guard Fred (Fuzzy) Thurston of the Green Bay Packers signed a contract Wednesday for the 1966 season, his 10th in the National Football League.

Photographed in Kentucky at the Old Taylor Distillery

Why did Colonel Taylor make his Bourbon in a castle?

In 1887, Col. Edmund H. Taylor, Jr., set out to find a special kind of water to make Bourbon with: limestone spring water.

This water has an incredibly tantalizing flavor that it acquires naturally by bubbling up through the limestone ground-rock.

He found a spring near Frankfort, Kentucky. The water here ran forth so pure, so plentiful that he knew he would never want to make Bourbon anywhere else.

So, next to his spring, he built his distillery. And since he was there to stay, he built it to last. Built it in the form of a castle! Made of the same limestone that was to give his water its intriguing flavor!

Does the Colonel's castle make a better Bourbon?

Buy a bottle of Old Taylor...and taste for yourself.

SPORTS

Celtics and Lakers Set for Title Tilt

BOSTON (AP) — The National Basketball Association championship will be on the line Thursday night, with the rejuvenated Los Angeles Lakers determined to end the Boston Celtics' seven-year reign and spoil retiring Red Auerbach's final game as coach. "To a man, we know we can win it," Los Angeles Coach Fred Schaus said after the Lakers' earned a 123-115 victory Tuesday, squaring the series at 3-3 and forcing a seventh-game showdown.

"We'll get it," Auerbach declared. "We've always been able to come up with the big one, and percentages and the home court advantage are with us."

While the Celtics gun for an unprecedented eighth straight championship and ninth in 10 years, the Lakers also will be shooting for an NBA mark in attempting to avenge four previous defeats in the finals against Boston.

No team in NBA history ever has fallen behind 3-1 and come back to win the championship playoff. Los Angeles, however, has shocked the Celtics by winning 121-117 in Boston last Sunday and then making it two in a row Tuesday.

"We're one team that doesn't suffer from Celticitis," Schaus said. "Anything can happen in Boston. We've won three of our last four and know we can do it. I'm sure Boston feels the same as we do. The game should be a honey."

"Both teams looked a little tired in the sixth game—and they had a right to be. But the adrenalin will be flowing for the big one."

Auerbach, who is retiring after the game to devote full time to duties as general manager, didn't offer any excuses after the Lakers outdueled the Celtics in the fourth period to win the sixth game.

"We simply were outplayed," Auerbach said. "They got a hot streak and we couldn't catch them. Gail Goodrich was great for them. So was Rudy LaRusso. But it will be a different story at the Garden. I promise you that."

Astros Hand Cardinals 3-1 Setback

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston's Dave Guisti pitched a three-hitter and Jim Wynn had a hand in every run as the Astros defeated St. Louis 3-1 Wednesday night.

Wynn supplied all the support Guisti needed, hitting a two-run homer in the first inning and scoring the final run in the sixth inning. Wynn led off the sixth with a single and moved around on an infield out, a wild pitch and Bob Aspromonte's double.

Joe Morgan collected three of the Astros' seven hits off Ray Washburn and Curt Simmons. Guisti, who blanked San Francisco on eight hits in his last start, allowed only a second-inning single by Tim McCarver until the Cardinals pushed across their run in the ninth inning on two-out doubles by Curt Flood and McCarver.

St. Louis 000 000 001—1 3 0. Houston 200 001 00x—3 7 0. Washburn, Simmons (8) and McCarver; Guisti and Bateman. W—Guisti 2-1. L—Washburn 1-2. Home runs — Houston, Wynn (4).

Fish, Game Group Okays Big Projects

BOISE (AP) — Federal aid projects totaling more than $300,000 were approved by Idaho's Fish and Game Commission Wednesday.

Among them were $195,800 for maintenance and development of wildlife management areas throughout the state and $101,100 for improvement and rehabilitation of winter ranges.

The commission also approved two name changes to conform with popular usage: —The Mike J. Bottinelli Refuge near Bonners Ferry to Boundary County Wildlife Management Area.

—The Lewiston Orchards Reservoir refuge to Mann's Lake Refuge.

In other business, advertising of bids was approved for construction of a Horsethief Basin dam project five miles east of Cascade.

The reservoir is planned as a fishing area about 270 acres in size and about 40 feet deep.

The two-day meeting will conclude Thursday with the setting of opening dates of the 1966 upland game bird hunting season. Remainder of the season will be set by the commission in August.

White Sox Slip Past Boston 8-6

BOSTON (AP) — The Chicago White Sox pushed across three runs in a decisive seventh inning capped by Smokey Burgess' pinch single and struggled to a 8-6 victory over the Boston Red Sox Wednesday before a small crowd of 1,578.

Hot-hitting Floyd Robinson extended his batting streak to 13 games, including the 1965 finale, as the White Sox posted their 10th victory in 13 starts this season.

Chicago broke a 5-5 deadlock on a pair of walks and singles by Ron Hansen and Burgess. The line single of Burgess scored Ron Berry from third and Hansen all the way from first.

Chicago 023 000 300—8 11 0. Boston 100 220 001—6 8 2. Buzhardt, Locker (6), Higgins (7) and Romano, McNortney; (7); Stephenson, Magrini (3), Grilli (5), Santiago (7), Brandon (9) and Ryan, W—Locker, 2-0, L—Grilli, 0-1.

Favorite Has Last Big Test Before Derby

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — The great Graustark, heavy favorite to win the Kentucky Derby, gets his sternest test in weight and distance Thursday in the $25,000-added Blue Grass Stakes at Keeneland.

Graustark will carry Derby weight of 126 pounds over a 1 1/4-mile — a furlong shorter than the May 7 classic — against two other Derby eligibles.

Under 123 pounds for the Blue Grass will be Robert Lehman's Rehabilitate, starting from the inside post position, and Grand Prix Stable's Abe's Hope, in the No. 2 starting gate.

Graustark, with Braulio Baeza in the saddle, will go from the outside.

Abe's Hope, first finisher in the Florida Derby where he was disqualified and placed fourth for bumping, will be ridden by Willie Shoemaker, who also will be aboard Derby day.

Rehabilitate, not considered a likely Derby starter now, will be guided by Earle Fires, Keeneland's leading jockey in the current spring meeting.

Mrs. Joe W. Brown's Cabildo was scheduled to start in the Blue Grass, but was sidelined when he developed a two-degree fever after a morning workout.

Reds Blow Lead, Rally To Nip Giants

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Cincinnati blew a six-run lead and then pushed across two runs in the last two innings to defeat San Francisco 8-6 Wednesday.

Willie McCovey hammered a grand-slam home run for the Giants but Willie Mays failed for the third straight day in his bid to hit his 512th career home run.

Mays was hitless in four trips to the plate and lined out just before McCovey connected for his first home run of the campaign and the fourth grand-slammer of his career.

The Reds broke a 6-6 tie in the eighth inning when Tommy Harper walked, moved up on a sacrifice and an infield hit by Don Pavletich and came home on a force out. They added another run in the ninth on Vada Pinson's triple and Mel Queen's sacrifice fly.

Cincinnati 100 140 011—8 12 0. San Fran. 000 051 000—6 10 0. Pappas, Nottebart (5), Baldschun (7), Davidson (8) and Edwards; Perry, Gibbon (5), Linzy (6) and Haller, Barton (9). W—Baldschun 1-2. L—Linzy 0-1. Home runs — San Francisco, Brown (1), McCovey (1).

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, April 28 — Born today, you have great personal courage and extremely high ambitions coupled with a degree of perseverance that makes others wince to think about. Quick to size up any situation, you are not one to walk blindly into trouble. If trouble does catch up with you, it is not because you were not aware of its existence; it is merely that you took a chance and lost. Your errors can seldom be blamed on ignorance or stupidity; they must instead be blamed on your own determination to carry on despite the obstacles.

More than likely you will be more interested in ventures of an artistic or creative nature than in business or commerce. Yet you have an uncanny knack for business that you shouldn't ignore, for it can aid you no matter what career you choose to follow. Don't make the mistake of thinking that there is some shame attached to making your artistic efforts pay off materially; use all your gifts together!

Eyes Expansion

Minico Class Graduation Set May 23

OURAY, Colo. (AP) — Francis Kuboske wants to expand his tour business. Kuboske has asked the Colorado Public Utilities Commission to issue him a certificate authorizing operation of a sight-seeing business on the moon.

RUPERT — Minico's largest graduating class will receive diplomas during Commencement exercises scheduled for 8 p.m., May 23, in the high school gymnasium, according to school officials.

Dr. Howard Toews, school board trustee, will be in charge of the presentation of diplomas to some 330 seniors.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie is scheduled to speak during Baccalaureate exercises to be held at 2:30 p.m. May 22, also in the gymnasium.

The high school band, directed by Keith Ferris will play the processional and recessional at both Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises.

The concert choir, directed by Ned Stocks, music instructor, will present "Beatitudes" and Stocks also will conduct congregational singing at Baccalaureate.

Daryl Neibaur will give the invocation and Mary Ann Asson, the benediction.

Susan Zollinger will present the valedictory address during Commencement exercises and Gary Lowder and Allan Barrus, salutatory addresses. Gerda Grobbelaar, an exchange student from South Africa is scheduled to speak.

Leigh Ingersoll, high school principal, will present the class of 1966. Danny Tyler will give the invocation and James Bradshaw the benediction.

The senior girls chorus will sing during commencement, directed by Ned Stocks.

Seniors are expected to be dismissed from school May 20.

Plans are under way by senior class members to hold a banquet May 19 at the Rupert Elks Lodge.

Senior class officers include Denny Tyler, president; Daryl Neibaur, vice president; Mary Ann Asson, secretary; James Bradshaw and Gary Lowder, room representatives.

PLANS MEETING
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown says he will confer with Secretary of State Dean Rusk about Soviet fishing trawlers off the California coast.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Friday, April 29
TAURUS (April 21-May 21) — Opportunities beckoning at the time are more promising than usual. Take care not to be taken in by glittering exterior, however.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21) — Legal matters should resolve themselves in your favor today, especially should they have to do with domestic problems.

CANCER (June 22-July 23) — Where there is a journey in the offing, make preparations well ahead of time. Business partners and co-workers are favorably inclined.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — There is much to be gained spiritually, if not materially, through rendering aid to the "other fellow." Be prepared.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23) — A day which pays dividends only to those worthy of their hire. Take care, therefore, not to attempt to ride on reputation alone.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) — If something new is offered, you can afford to give in to your adventuresome nature. Make no investments of cash, however.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — You should be able to achieve definite social goals today, though business affairs may be at a temporary standstill.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) — Excellent inducements for self-improvements should be offered by present employers. Take advantage of the situation.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20) — A day for leaving no stone unturned in the effort to secure your objective. Don't be put off by lame excuses.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) — Apply both charm and talent to present circumstances and you should be "out of the woods" by evening.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 21) — Don't say no to a new opportunity just because it may involve an unwanted journey. Good may well come out of all this.

ARIES (March 22-April 20) — Approach all business affairs with caution, lest you find yourself jumping out of the frying pan into the fire!

American Soldiers Do Find Time to Complain About War

By TOM TIEDE
ANKME, Viet Nam (NEA)—It is night. It is raining. It is 6,000 miles from home. It is three or four days without hotchow.

It is also a time for a soldier to complain about the whole miserable thing. And it is a time to listen.

"Boy," one fellow says, "I smell like a dog."

"What'd ya say?" another asked.

"I said I ain't had a shower in three weeks."

"That's nothing."

"Oh?"

"I haven't even brushed my teeth in that long."

"Aw, quit yer moanin'."

"All I said was I smelled like a dog."

"You don't have to advertise."

"Yeah, we all got noses, kid."

Next to his rifle and his mess kit, the wall of woe is a GI's best friend. It can't cool him when he's hot, turn canteen water to beer or ease the ache in his boots, but it comforts and it is the only alternative to saying nothing at all.

"You know what really gets me?"

"What?"

"It gets me we gotta do everything in this war."

"Yeah."

"Two weeks ago we're fighting Viet Cong. Last week we're on the picket line. And now this" week we're out in the boonocks again."

"Diggin' and piggin'."

"I haven't had a hot meal in a week."

"Ain't nobody else doing any fighting here?"

"Yeah, the enemy."

No lights are allowed in the combat tent and the faceless voices mumble on from behind glowing cigarettes. It is humid, muddy and dreary. It is the third month of war for these people.

"I saw a guy in Saigon last week in jungle fatigues."

"So?"

"So he was a hospital clerk."

"And?"

"How come a clerk can get jungle fatigues but the First Cavalry who is in the jungle has got to wear the regulars?"

"First Division ain't even got jungle boots yet."

"Those guys in Saigon . . .

they're Viet Cons."

"The guy was a hospital clerk, I tell ya."

"Jeeze."

"He even had the damned things starched."

The men have been pulled from the farm, the gas station and the business office. They have been told when to eat, where to sleep and how to kill. The mind becomes disciplined but not the spirit. It continues happily to rebel.

"I got the solution."

"What?"

"Vote for me for president."

"You?"

"My platform would be 'Equal rights for the dogface.'"

"Or how about, 'A war on C rations?'"

"Or maybe, 'All the way for a pass each day.'"

"Ask not what the soldier can do for you, but what you can do for the soldier."

"In your heart you know we's right."

They laugh and sigh and the language is terrible. They whine about the mail service, groan about the PX, mutter about the lack of ice and women. They lament the heat, the filth, the insects.

"Hey, can it!" someone grumbles. "I'm trying to sleep."

"Get him, will ya!"

"Yeah."

"Some guys are always griping."

Ralph Peters Is Seeking Jerome Post

JEROME — Ralph Peters has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for state representative from Jerome County.

Peters, who is president of the Jerome Abstract and Title Co., has served an active role in community affairs. A former director of the Jerome Chamber of Commerce, he is also a past president of the Jerome Rotary Club and a former commander of the American Legion post.

Peters has served as secretary of the Jerome Junior Chamber of Commerce and currently is a director in both the Jerome County Recreation Association and the Jerome Development Corp.

Long active in Boy Scout work, he is a former director of the Snake River Area Council and is presently a Troop Committeeman for Troop 141.

An active elder in the United Presbyterian church, he is now serving on the church's state board.

He and his wife, the former Blanche Callen, Jerome, are the parents of five children.

Mother of Year Leaves On Saturday

BUHL — Mrs. John Unzicker, Idaho's Mother of the Year, accompanied by her husband, will depart on the 10:19 a.m. flight from Twin Falls Saturday on the first lap of her journey to national competition.

Mrs. Unzicker will arrive Saturday evening in New York City where she will stay at the Waldorf Astoria. During her three-day stay there she will have an opportunity to become acquainted with the other state mothers and will be honored at teas, luncheons and dinners, interspersed with varied tours of the metropolitan city.

On Wednesday, May 4, Mrs. Unzicker, along with other state mothers, will depart by bus for Washington, D. C. That evening she will attend the Star Spangled awards dinner, with Idaho Sen. Len B. Jordan to serve as her escort in the candlelight procession, during which time various awards will be presented and the National Mother for 1966 will be announced.

During her stay in the nation's capital, Mrs. Unzicker will have residence in the Shoreham Hotel. Her two-day agenda includes a tour of the White House, a luncheon engagement in the senate dining room with Sen. Jordan, and a tour of Mt. Vernon. The Unzickers will depart by train from Washington, D. C., Friday evening and expect to be back in Buhl May 8.

Celebrating Our 26th Year

Your AFS Store Is a Friendly Store

And the man who runs your AG store is almost always the owner. He knows his customers, knows what they want and has a friendly word for you when you come in to shop.

He is one of the owners of this huge food distributing organization. And because he is an owner he can buy what you want for less and so he passes this saving on to you.

In Magic Valley homemakers are fortunate in having so many AG Food stores . . . they are well located in each community so that shopping is easy.

This section today is his way of saying thank you for the many years you have patronized him . . . and his way of assuring you that you can always get your family food needs at real pocketbook savings.

* BIGGEST INTERMOUNTAIN BUYING POWER

ASSOCIATED FOOD STORES today is the biggest grocery-product buying power in the Intermountain West. With her own fleet of trucks running between West Coast distribution centers and her four division warehouses in Boise, Pocatello, Helena, and Salt Lake City, ASSOCIATED has become the major factor in food distribution in Utah, Idaho, Western Montana, and parts of surrounding states. This large volume assures the lowest possible operating costs and enables a substantially lower gross margin. No store or group of stores buy groceries for less than members of ASSOCIATED FOOD STORES.

26 YEARS OF SERVICE

Twenty-six years ago a small group of independent retailers met together. They were well aware that the corporate giants were gaining economies and efficiencies that they did not have. They joined hands and together as ASSOCIATED FOOD STORES, INC., they found their strength to be equal to any giant. When independent grocers join ASSOCIATED FOODS... they multiply their power without sacrificing their individuality. Immediately they have access to the tools of big business. Consider the assets and know that even the largest corporate giants have no more or better service at their fingertips.
